FROM THE PRESIDENT

Let me begin by congratulating Steve Marcus on the sensational job that he has done serving as President of Etz Chayim. Once again he took on the responsibility like a "true pro", complete with experience, wisdom, and dedication. I would also like to congratulate Cheryl Berkowitz and Andrea Lublin on receiving the Harry Levine Service Award. Thanks for all that you do.

I look forward to serving with our new Officers, Board of Trustees, staff, and volunteers, together continuing the rich tradition of our congregation.

Chanukah is approaching and soon we will be lighting candles and eating latkes. If you are looking for gifts, candles, or decorations, stop by our Gift Shop. Our Gift Shop maven, Sandy Marcus, will be more than happy to help you pick the perfect gift!

On behalf of the Board, I wish you all a happy and meaningful Chanukah.

FROM THE RABBI

The Gemara tells the following story: When Adam the first man saw that the day was progressively diminishing, as the days become shorter from the autumnal equinox until the winter solstice, he did not yet know that this is a normal phenomenon, and therefore he said: Woe is me; perhaps because I sinned the world is becoming dark around me and will ultimately return to the primordial state of chaos and disorder and this is the death that was sentenced upon me from Heaven.

He arose and spent eight days in fasting and in prayer. Once he saw that the winter solstice had arrived, and saw that the day was progressively lengthening after the solstice, he said: Clearly, the days become shorter and then longer, and this is the order of the world. He went and observed a festival for eight days.

We currently find ourselves in a season of darkness. The days are getting shorter, the Earth is getting colder. Animals are going into hibernation. The trees have all lost their leaves and are entering into their own slumber. Yet we stubborn human beings power on, working our 8 hour days that have many of us awake in the dark and get home in the dark. One of the many things I love about this story in the Gemara is the sense of horror and sadness in Adam that it captures as he experiences his first winter as well as his joy as the days start to lengthen again.

Though we may not be able to shift the hours we work, what might it look like for us to more deeply honor the change of seasons of our world? Winter, with its shorter days and colder outdoors forces us to turn inward. After a productive summer of planting and harvesting, we finally have the time to sit with our thoughts, to gather around the fire with friends and family and reflect on it all. I invite us to use this season to lean into winter and use this season to take this journey inward. If we can genuinely do the work of the winter then, much like Adam, we will also merit to experience the joys of spring that lie ahead.

The first two blessings are said with the Shamash already lit, but immediately prior to lighting the Chanukah candles.

BLESSING #1

Baruch ata Adonoy Eloheinu melech ha-olam
asher kid'shanu be'mitzvo'sav ve-tzivanu lehadlik ner shel Chanukah.

Blessed are You, God, King of the Universe, Who made us holy with His commandments and commanded us to kindle the Chanukah light.

BLESSING #2

Baruch ata Adonoy Eloheinu melech ha-olam
Shi-asa nee-seen la-avo-seinu,
Baya-meem ha-haim baz-man ha-zeh.

Blessed are You, God, King of the Universe, Who made miracles for our forefathers, in those days at this season.

BLESSING #3

This blessing is said on the first night only.

Baruch ata Adonoy Eloheinu melech ha-olam
Sheh-he-che-yano vi-kee-yimanu
Vi-hee-gee-yano laz-man ha-zeh.

Blessed are You, God, King of the Universe, Who has kept us alive, sustained us, and brought us to this season.

This paragraph is said each night, after the first light has been kindled.

We kindle these lights for the miracles and the wonders, for the redemption and the battles which You performed for our forefathers in those days at this season through Your holy priests. During all eight days of Chanukah these lights are sacred, and we are not permitted to make ordinary use of them, but only to look at them — in order to express thanks and praise to Your great Name, for your miracles, Your wonders, and Your salutations.
Many thanks to Steve Marcus and his board for their time and dedication during the past several years. I want to also congratulate Marc Jacobson and his board to continue their time, support, and leadership. Mazel Tov to Cheryl Berkowitz and Andrea Lublin for receiving the Harry Levine Service Award. Thank you Rabbi Mark for your religious leadership and meaningful sermons and classes. Many thanks to Elsa, Sandy, and Chris for your hours of dedication to the shul. It is also important to thank ALL of our volunteers who spend hours helping with cooking, contributions, bulletin, shopping, building issues, phone calls, rides, or whatever needs to be done. They do it with a smile! That is why we are who we are - Etz Chayim!!

Our Etz Chayim team works together. Everyone here helps to make the programs successful. I have planned a variety of programs for the months of December and January for your enjoyment. Find a program or activity and call a friend to participate together.

DECEMBER:

Our first program of the month is Candle-Making. I have registered our group at RiverFront Candle Co. in Perrysburg on Sunday, December 4 at 2:00 p.m. You MUST register for this program. RiverFront Candle Co. is based in Historic Downtown Perrysburg and offers a unique hands-on candle pouring experience. Let your sense of smell inspire you as you make your way through the store. Guests can pour their own candle by blending three premium fragrance oils together to create their own custom scent. Pricing depends on the container you choose. The candle containers start at $25.

Our in-person Sunday Mahj & Poker is on Sunday, December 11 at 10:00 a.m. to Noon. For extra fun, we will also be playing Bingo!! Following the games, stay and enjoy a pre-Chanukah lunch, including latkes, of course. Come join for the fun and great social interaction.

Rabbi Mark will continue his second Zoom Mini-Series on Thursday, December 22 at 7:00 p.m. Please register for the Zoom link.

Help Volunteer at Ronald McDonald House. We need 10 volunteers to help cook lunch for the families on Sunday, December 25 from 10:00 to Noon. Please register with Nancy if you are interested.

Games & Munchies: Come to shul for a pizza lunch and to play poker, mahj, or cards the afternoon of Sunday, December 25 at 12:30. Everyone is welcome.

JANUARY:

Let’s go to a hockey game! It will be fun to watch the Toledo Walleye in action. I have reserved tickets for Sunday, January 8 at 5:15 p.m. The tickets are $17 per person. Please register with Nancy ASAP.

Rabbi Mark’s third Zoom Mini-Series class will be on Sunday, January 15 at 7:00 p.m. Rabbi’s sessions are interactive and meaningful. Please register for the link.

Our in-person Sunday Mahj & Poker is scheduled for Sunday, January 22 from 10:00 a.m. to Noon. Join the fun.

Come to our Family Shabbat Dinner on Friday, January 27. Rabbi Mark will be leading services. We will also honor those members who are celebrating birthdays in January.

Everyone is invited to Mincha services, a Shalosh Seudos, and Havdalah on Saturday, January 28 at 5:00 p.m. A light meal will be served after Mincha services. Rabbi Mark will give a short class between Mincha and Maariv.

Please see the following page for a listing of all our December and January activities!

Wishing everyone a Happy Chanukah and a Happy & Healthy 2023.

Sisterhood’s annual Donor fundraiser is in full swing! Donor letters have been sent out and we’re looking forward to the support our shul members show each year. When you receive your Donor letter, please give generously so that Sisterhood can continue to offer it’s wonderful programs and provide for the maintenance of Etz Chayim’s kitchen.

Purim is at the beginning of March this year. Please watch your mail as the Shaloch Manot letters will go out at the end of January. This is a lovely way to fulfill the mitzvah of sending food to others on Purim.
