FROM THE RABBI

Fast Days and Football

This year the tenth day of Tevet falls on January 1, 2015. This day of fasting on the Jewish calendar commemorates the arrival of the Babylonian army in Israel, ultimately resulting in the destruction of the first Beit Hamikdash. January 1, on the other hand, is full of parades, pageantry, and of course, college football.

The Fast of Tevet is a day fast, beginning with dawn and ending with nightfall. In this part of the world it is the shortest of the fasts, taking place very near the winter solstice. We do not eat or drink on this day; we recited Selichot, special prayers of supplication, and we read the Torah. Unlike Tisha B'Av or Yom Kippur, however, there are no other specific prohibitions attached to the day. The Rabbis though do encourage us to temper our behavior in light of the day and its history.

January 1 has become a great part of Americana, with the Tournament of Roses Parade and numerous college football bowl games. It used to be that the college football championship was decided on January 1, but in recent years that has been moved. Even so, there is still no shortage of bowl pomp and circumstance on this day.

As an American Modern Orthodox Community, we take from both parts of that heritage. We must never forget to mourn the destruction of our Beit Hamikdash and continue to pray for its rebuilding. We must also give thanks for the great religious freedom granted us by the United States. In the process we may also come to enjoy the American commemoration of January 1.

May we continue to be free to live as Jews as well as Americans.

Rabbi Evan B. Rubin

OHR CHADASH ADULTS

The following is a list of the dates and topics for the Ohr Chadash Adult Classes in January:

January 4, 2015 – 10:00 a.m. – Movie— “Sholem Aleichem: Laughing in the Darkness” -

This movie is a riveting portrait of the great writer whose stories became the basis of the Broadway musical Fiddler on the Roof. This movie tells the tale of the rebellious genius who created an entirely new literature. Plumbing the depths of a Jewish world locked in crisis and on the cusp of profound change, he captured that world with brilliant humor. Sholem Aleichem was not just a witness to the creation of a new modern Jewish identity, but one of the very men who shaped it.

January 11, 2015 – 10:30 a.m. – Program at B'nai Israel—Shmirah—watching the body between death and burial—presented by Cantor Ivor Lichterman

January 18, 2015 - 10:00 a.m.— Civil Disobedience and Jewish Law—What would the Halacha say about the actions of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.?

January 25, 2015 - 10:00 a.m. Science and Torah—Do I care if scientists can explain how the sea parted?

WE ARE IN NEED OF SPONSORS FOR THE CONTINENTAL BREAKFASTS ON SUNDAY MORNING.
PLEASE CONTACT THE SYNAGOGUE OFFICE IF YOU ARE INTERESTED. THE COST IS $36.00.

OHR CHADASH RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

TRADITION.....

Tradition: the handing down from generation to generation the continuation of the laws, customs, beliefs & thoughts. I'm writing this as I return home from a friend's son's wedding. How beautiful it was watching as the couple begins their life together under the chuppah: a tradition.

A child's Jewish education may begin and continue at Etz Chayim for many years. Yearly study includes Chumash, Shabbat, Chagim, prayers & blessings, vocabulary & Israel and other relevant topics.

Ohr Chadash and tradition: Each Sunday the students are learning blessings and discuss the Parsha. In addition to learning about all of the holidays, our children are learning in "hands on" kind of ways. Several weeks ago the older students experienced a trip to the Holocaust Memorial Center. During December, they heard speakers discuss their Jewish experiences during the time of Pearl Harbor.

Traditions continue by attending Saturday Shabbat services together, lighting Shabbat candles, family Shabbat dinners, preparing holiday meals together with your children, and families coming together to holiday services. Including family discussions on relevant topics together is key to upholding our traditions.

Save the Date: February 21st & 22nd- Family Shabbat and Consecration.

Warm regards,

Nancy Jacobson, Ohr Chadash Principal
