FROM THE RABBI

Repentance—Where Should We Concentrate

As we approach the High Holidays, we examine the idea of getting closer to Hashem. This process is known as repentance. With 613 commandments, any number of which where we may not have reached our potential, how do we focus?

Any number of ways exist to divide and subdivide the mitzvot. Some obligations are between man and Hashem, like Shabbat or prayer, while others are between man and his fellow man, like laws against stealing and murder. Some mitzvot are positive, such as honoring parents, while others are negative, such as not bearing false witness.

All human beings are individuals in many ways, and our relationship with Hashem is one. No two people have the same challenges. Some wrestle with kashrut, while others battle the urge to gossip.

When it comes to repentance, therefore, there is no one correct path. Every individual has his own unique way to pursue to become closer to the Creator. The goals, however, should be small and reachable. Developing that ultimate relationship with G-d is a lifetime goal, not meant to be achieved in one season or one year. Work on one thing at a time. Accomplish that and move on. Meeting the challenges one at a time will allow for more and continued success.

May this year of 5776 bring us all to closer relationships with the Almighty, and in turn closer to the ultimate redemption.

L'Shana Tova Tikateivu V'Techateimu !!

Rabbi Evan B. Rubin

FROM THE PRESIDENT

A GOOD NEW YEAR

In our Jewish world, it is the New Year season, Rosh Hashana. I consider myself fortunate to have learned how to be grateful to have arrived here once again. As a younger person I remember not always liking all that came with the High Holiday season. I learned this goodness from my experience, learning, and maturity. It is from this that I'm able to reflect on my true appreciation for how I have arrived at this place, 5776. I was never so connected with the counting that occurs on the Hebrew calendar until I started writing articles for the Hashomer. Now I like it and have one more connection to Judaism and the real inner workings of Congregation Etz Chayim.

ראש השנה

First and foremost please join me in sending a Shana Tova to all the women and men who help day in and day out with the perpetuation of our shul.

As 5775 draws to a close in mid-September, the new year of 5776 comes to all of us with beautiful celebration of prayer and sweet regards and wishes for everyone in our lives. Cindy and I wish all of you Shana Tovah, a Good Year; a year full of sweetness and good health.

In reflection on the past year, I am grateful to the Congregation honoring me to be your president. It has been a wonderful year and a satisfying experience. I look forward to the upcoming year and sharing with all of you.

Take the opportunity to meet and welcome Yaakov and Kayla Lasson to our shul and our community. Yaakov is our new Educational and Program Director. He will be working closely with the Rabbi, the Religious School and others to expand our Jewish leaning experience.

In closing, listen for the shofar. Let it fill your heart and open you up to the New Year 5776 and Congregation Etz Chayim.

Danny Becker, President

CONGREGATION ETZ WELCOMES RABBI YAAKOV LASSON AS ITS NEW EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM DIRECTOR

Congregation Etz Chayim is happy to announce the hiring of Rabbi Yaakov Lasson as its Educational Program Director. Yaakov will be responsible for religious, educational and social programming for adults and youth. He and his wife Kayla will be moving to Toledo at the beginning of September.

Yaakov Lasson was born in Detroit and raised in Baltimore. After 12 years of Jewish Day School, he studied at Yeshivat Sha'alvim in Israel for two years. He then studied at Yeshiva University for six years, earning degrees in Psychology and Jewish Education, as well as receiving Rabbinic Ordination.

Yaakov has been an integral and active part of organizations such as Yeshiva University's Center for the Jewish Future, the National Council of Synagogue Youth, and the Orthodox Union's Department of Synagogue Services. Additionally, Yaakov just returned from a five week excursion to the Western United States as the Rabbinic Advisor on the National Council of Young Israel's Achva West traveling program for teens.

He enjoys delivering lectures and classes at both his father-in-law's shul, the Touro Synagogue in Newport, Rhode Island as well as the Shenk shul in Washington Heights.

In his spare time, Yaakov enjoys playing sports, music and reading fiction.

Yaakov's wonderful wife Kayla looks forward to beginning her Occupational Therapy career in Toledo. In his new role as Educational Program Director at Congregation Etz Chayim, both Yaakov and Kayla are excited to join and contribute to the greater Toledo Jewish Community.

OHR CHADASH

WELCOME BACK!!!

Shanah Tovah!

Everyone at Ohr Chadash wishes the entire congregation and community a sweet, happy and healthy New Year.

Ohr Chadash Religious School is proud to begin our fourth year together. Students and teachers are excited to be back together. During our first week we introduced our Ohr Chadash students to our "twin" school and the Eyal family in Israel.

September is special holiday time with family & friends. We videotaped our students dipping apples in honey and saying the special prayer. This was sent to Eyal in Israel. Our friends in Israel will send us their videotape so we can watch and compare.

We will gather together with the B'nai Israel Religious School on September 20, 2015 for the annual Tashlich program. Rabbi Rubin and Cantor Lichterman will lead a beautiful service and explanation. We will conclude the morning with the students and teachers from all three religious schools meeting to sing Hinei Ma Tov together. This was videotaped and sent to Israel as a New Year greeting.

September marks the beginning of a year full of exciting classes, programs & projects at Ohr Chadash.

ATTENTION:

If you have an upcoming stone unveiling at Beth Shalom or Eagle Point Cemetery and choose to use our clergy, you must make arrangements through Rabbi Rubin. If you choose not to use our clergy, you still must schedule the date through the synagogue office, so the cemetery staff knows you are coming and can properly veil and prepare the headstone. THANK YOU!
