FROM THE RABBI

Come Dance With the Torah

Having blown the shofar on Rosh Hashanah, fasted on Yom Kippur, and eaten for a week in the Sukkah, we arrive at Simchat Torah, the glorious final day of the holiday season. On this day we sing joyous songs and dance with the Torah. We also complete and immediately restart the cycle of reading the Torah. The last and first aliyot are special honors auctioned off during services.

For the past number of years we have been fortunate to welcome Torah Tours to Congregation Etz Chayim for Simchat Torah. Torah Tours is a program of Yeshiva University, whereby students are sent to communities all over the country to add youth and energy to the celebration of the holiday.

Torah Tours, however, is only one ingredient necessary for a lively holiday celebration. Just as important, if not more so, are you our members. The larger the crowd the better the joy. On Monday night, October 5th and Tuesday morning, October 6th please come to Congregation Etz Chayim and experience something special. I promise you will not be disappointed. May our joy this Simchat Torah make us an even better community than we already are.

Rabbi Evan B. Rubin

FROM THE PRESIDENT

JOIN IN THE BAND!!

I hope everyone is having a wonderful holiday season. Please come and eat in our new sukkah. Come and dance with us on Simchat Torah.

By now, many of you are seeing and hearing about the new and exciting programs and activities we have planned at Etz Chayim. Our educational program director, Yaakov Lasson, has been hard at work planning wonderful new events. The new year of 5776 will be a very good one for the shul and our members.

Whenever I hear the number seventy-six, it reminds me of the Broadway show "Music Man", the song "Seventy-Six Trombones" and the celebration of America's independence. I asked Rabbi Rubin if there were any trombones in Torah and he said "No, but there are trumpets". I responded with 110 cornets; those are trumpets and again referencing "Music Man".

We have a lot to sing about at our shul and I urge everyone to sound your trumpets. Sing out praises for what's happening in our building. Ask your friends and relatives to join in the band and participate in our daily minyan, our cooking demonstrations, craft classes and book club gatherings. Come and learn about Torah and Jewish life in 5776.

In closing, please accept my sincere thank you for supporting our shul in 5775. Thank you to our staff, clergy and volunteers who do their jobs so well, helping to make Congregation Etz Chayim a place where everyone gets to play in the band.

Danny Becker, President

OHR CHADASH

L'Shanah Tovah! May this New Year be filled with health and happiness for all. I would like to wish everyone a sweet and meaningful New Year!

We concluded September with many beautiful and meaningful holiday programs at Ohr Chadash. October begins with a family dinner on Thursday, October 1st sponsored by Sisterhood and the Men's Club. There will be hors d'oeuvres in the Sukkah at 6:00 p.m. and dinner following in the Social Hall. I hope everyone will join the fun and great food.

The activities continue with a Sukkah hop on October 4th. Children, teachers & parents will be visiting different sukkahs for fun activities and music. Children in grades one through three will be traveling to Shalom Street in Detroit with their friends from Temple Shomer Emunim and B'nai Israel on October 18th. This offers to be a unique interactive experience.

Our older students in grades eight through ten will volunteer at Friendship Circle on October 11th from 12:30 p.m.-3:00 p.m.. The students will help with music, art and Judaic activities. These students will join Pete Silverman's class and his students from B'nai Israel for learning and discussion on October 4th from 9:30 a.m.-12:00.

The excitement started last month with our "twin" school activities. Each Ohr Chadash student made an individual videotape to send to their new friend in Israel. We also invited our Ohr Chadash families for apples & honey, videotaped this and sent it to the school. Our students are anxious to receive a video from our friends in Israel.

Every Sunday and Thursday in October will be class time filled with discussions and activities for the children. Thank you Rabbi Rubin, Rabbi Lasson, Megan Vandyke and Gina Black for being part of the Ohr Chadash team.

Please join us for a very special Ohr Chadash family Shabbat service, Junior Congregation & lunch on October 10th.

Nancy Jacobson
Principal

FROM THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM DIRECTOR RABBI YAAKOV LASSON

Kayla and I are settling in wonderfully to the shul and the community. Thank you to everyone who has warmly greeted us and made Toledo feel like home.

We've had some amazing programs already including a Pre-Selichot program with Nancy Jacobson and Peter Silverman, a Sunday afternoon presentation on the dual nature of Rosh Hashana by yours truly, and last but not least, a craft night organized by Melanie and Falyon Woodby.

...And there is much more on tap. Stay tuned for an exciting Torah Tours program with two fine Yeshiva University students. I know that they will bring a wonderful spirit to the synagogue over the holiday. They will be teaching classes and joining for the dancing, as in years past.

There will be a Shabbat Chol HaMoed/Leil Hoshana Rabbah Extravaganza on Saturday, October 3rd. From 5:30 p.m. throughout the evening, there will be exciting classes, music and food in the shul sukkah.

Lastly, the Sunday morning adult learning series, "Pie and Prayer" begins after Sukkot. Enjoy some fine pies while learning more about the world of prayer. You don't want to miss these events.

Sukkot is a time of happiness, zman simchateinu. We are joyous because we celebrate in front of G-d, as it were. In fact, the sukkah that we sit in is referred to Kabbalistically as the "shade of faith". As the air cools down, we move outside the comfort of our homes and trust, in a sense, that all is right with our world and our lives—because we sense the presence of G-d more acutely in our sukkah. The sukkah is synonymous with simplicity; it's us and G-d out there, not just for the present, but for the long haul. And that's why we are happy. We realize that in life, in a sense, it's really just us and G-d, together forever.

Perhaps, we should all (including myself) think about spending a little bit more time this year "with G-d" - at the weekly minyanim and at all the exciting Torah classes that will be revving up—before you know it. You'll be happy you did!

I look forward to spending more time with everyone over the course of the year. Kayla and I wish everyone a wonderful new year, with health and happiness for the entire Jewish people.

Rabbi Yaakov Lason

ATTENTION:

If you have an upcoming stone unveiling at Beth Shalom or Eagle Point Cemetery and choose to use our clergy, you must make arrangements through Rabbi Rubin. If you choose not to use our clergy, you still must schedule the date through the synagogue office, so the cemetery staff knows you are coming and can properly veil and prepare the headstone. THANK YOU!
