FROM THE RABBI

Are the Holidays Late This Year?

As a result of the fact that 5776 is a Jewish leap year, all of the fall holidays occur in October this year. In other words, the perception is that the holidays are “late.” The reality, however, is that they are neither early nor late, but rather right on time.

The Jewish calendar is based on the cycle of the moon. A lunar year is approximately ten days shorter than a solar year. Without adjustment this would cause the holidays to wander throughout the seasons. The halacha, however, does not allow this.

The holiday of Sukkot celebrates the fall harvest. As a result it must occur in the fall. Without a leap year this year Sukkot would occur about September 17, before the autumnal equinox. This scenario is not permitted.

When the Jewish calendar was fixed in the fourth century of the common era, the nineteen year cycle was made with seven leap years, in which we add a thirty day month. Because of this the holidays always fall in their proper time. I wish you all productive use of the extra time to prepare for our “late” fall holidays

Rabbi Evan B. Rubin

FROM THE PRESIDENT

REFLECTIONS

For many of us, September is associated with children going “back-to-school”. For us, as Jews, we begin to feel the pull of the High Holidays and all that comes with their observances and celebrations. The New Year, 5777, and the holiday cycle beginning with Rosh Hashana and concluding with Simchat Torah fall during the month of October.

Reflecting on the past year gives us the opportunity to take stock of what happened in 5776. One year ago we greeted Rabbi Yaakov and Kayla Lasson as they joined our shul family. They brought with them their strong spirit of adventure and love for Orthodox Judaism.

As one door closes another one opens, and such is the case with the Lassons. I would like to announce that these two young pioneers are moving onward and upward to Southfield, MI. Rabbi Lasson has taken a new position at the Farber Hebrew Day School. He will be teaching Judaic Studies to 4th and 5th grade students. We are so very happy to see the Lassons advance in their careers and at the same time still be close to Toledo and our shul family.

As the year closes, we continue to be faced with the familiar problem of needing cash to support the slow revenue period of the late summer. The Fall Fundraising Campaign letter you received combines the need for added cash and the Yom Kippur appeal. This combined campaign is soliciting extra donations to boost our cash-flow and kick-start our new year. If everyone gives to their fullest, Congregation Etz Chayim will continue to thrive.

Within a few weeks you will be receiving additional information regarding the High Holidays, including the opportunity to purchase aliyahs for Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur.

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, I wish everyone a happy, healthy and joyous New Year. I look forward to seeing you at shul.

Danny Becker, President

MEN'S CLUB NEWS

As always the synagogue appreciates the hard work of the Men's Club who helped prepare and serve the delicious food at our annual picnic.

Our Men's Club continues to plan events for our members. We wish everyone a happy holiday season. Post cards will be sent out with information regarding our next meeting. We hope you will take the time to join us for our meetings.

DAVID S. STONE RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

We have embarked on an exciting school year with our chaverim from Etz Chayim. It is wonderful to have all of our students and staff together again under one roof. Our welcome back breakfast was a tremendous success and we are looking forward to a great school year!

We are thrilled to have Rabbi Evan Rubin, Gina Black, Megan VanDyke, and Cindy Becker join our staff from Etz Chayim. Rabbi Rubin will be teaching on both Sundays and Wednesdays.

Our parent/child class will begin on September 18 for ages three and under. The class will be taught by Megan VanDyke and be held from 10:30-12:00. The focus of the curriculum will be on Jewish holidays, Hebrew and Judaics. There is no charge for the class. See calendar for details and contact Kbrody@cbitledo.org if you are interested and able to attend.

We are looking forward to many joint programs throughout the school year. A lone soldier is coming in from the Cleveland area to speak to 6th-10th graders from Shomer Emunim and students from our David S. Stone Religious School on October 9. Tashlich will also take place prior to the speaker for all congregants from Etz Chayim and Congregation B'nai Israel. Classes will also partake in the high holiday food drive by delivering items to the JFS Food bank as well as organizing items.

Peter Silverman is dedicated to keeping our twinning program going to continue to grow relationships between our students here and our chaverim in the Partnership region of the Western Galilee. He recently returned from a visit to Israel to meet with the teachers face to face. I was also fortunate to meet with the director of the program so that we can make this an amazing program for our students.

Kim Brody, Principal
