FROM THE RABBI

CHOL HAMOED—SO WHICH IS IT?

Between the first two days of Sukkot, which are full-blown holidays, and Shemini Atzeret and Simchat Torah, which are also complete celebrations, we have five days known as Chol Hamoed, literally the weekdays of the holiday. The classic question debated is how we classify these days - are they weekdays or holidays?

The beginning and end days of Sukkot, as well as Passover, are marked by holiday celebrations, special services, unique Torah readings, and Haftarat. On Chol Hamoed the services are distinct from weekdays, but with less pomp and circumstance than that of the holiday days. We read the Torah, but we do not have a Haftarah.

A divide in the observance of Chol Hamoed concerns work. The Rabbis encourage us to put off things that can be saved until after the holiday, but there are no specific prohibitions against work. Some have the custom to minimize work as much as possible, to maintain the integrity of the holiday. Those who do not, however, are not violating the Torah's law.

Sukkot is identified by the Torah as an eight-day celebration. Whenever possible during those eight days we need to honor the holiday. During chol hamoed we take the opportunity to have special parties, dinners, etc. Through this we help elevate the weekdays toward the level of the holiday.

I hope everyone has a wonderful and meaningful Sukkot.

Rabbi Evan B. Rubin

FROM THE PRESIDENT

As we enter into the New Year of 5778, I would like to thank everyone who has assisted the synagogue in some way. It is only through the efforts of so many that our shul will continue to function smoothly.

The past year has offered many activities for each of us and I am hopeful that you have taken the opportunity to join us. Nancy Jacobson has done a wonderful job in planning the events. I know that these plans will continue to occur and hope that if you have missed those events, you will choose to participate in future ones.

Congregation Etz Chayim is here for each of you. The synagogue is simply a building, and it is up to each of us to decide what happens on the inside. If you have not taken an active role, I encourage you to do so. The success of the shul depends on each of us being involved.

On behalf of the Board of Trustees and its officers, I wish each of you a Happy and Healthy New Year. May it be a year of everything is good for everyone.

Bob Berkowitz
President

DAVID S. STONE RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

The school year is well under way and all of the students at David S. Stone Religious School are involved in many exciting learning opportunities. The Fall holidays are upon us and we are looking forward to celebrating Sukkot and Simchat Torah with the congregation.

Our oldest grades saw the documentary "Bearing Witness" last month. Hindea Markowicz introduced the documentary, which was filmed at Congregation B'nai Israel 7 years ago. The film featured our students interviewing local Holocaust survivors. The film was very impactful to our current students and so important to realizing the stories of our local survivors.

We are continuing to strengthen our relationships with our friends in the Western Galilee through partnership activities throughout the year. Our students will be working collaboratively with our friends in Israel to learn about each other and build relationships for years to come.
