FROM THE RABBI

TU B'SHEVAT - LET'S CELEBRATE THE TREES

It always fascinates me that we have the holiday of Tu B'Shevat, which celebrates trees, at a time when in Toledo the weather is cold and snowy. The truth of the matter is, however, that there is good logic to this.

Tu B'Shevat is a new year for trees. The same way that our calendar turns on Rosh Hashanah, a tree's calendar turns on Tu B'Shevat. This is significant because we are not allowed to use anything that grows from a tree in the first three years of its life.

Those years are counted from Tu B'Shevat. If someone plants a tree now, then on Tu B'Shevat that tree will be in its second year.

The fact that a tree's new year falls in the middle of winter is fortunate. There is unlikely to be confusion when fruit grows regarding the year the tree was in at the time. Since the year changed outside of the growing season, we never encounter this problem.

Tu B'Shevat is a day which we use to celebrate our connection to Israel and to the earth. We are also reminded that no matter how much we may do toward the growing of our food, Hashem is the force making all of this possible.

Let us remember this year how fortunate we are for all that we have and all that Hashem has given us.

Rabbi Evan B. Rubin

FROM THE PRESIDENT

January 1 is the beginning of a New Year. A secular new year, that is. In October, as we celebrated Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, we committed ourselves to being the best person we can be. We atoned for any sin we might have committed and we promised to do our best not to repeat those choices. Certainly, it was a time to reflect on the past year.

And now, we find ourselves thinking about resolutions we might make for the secular twelve months to come. As we do so, let us remember the importance and value of family and friends. Let us keep them in our thoughts and make choices that reflect the wonderful blessings that these people provide to us. The shul is an extension of each of our families. We find comfort inside its walls. We may feel comfort in the prayers we say. We might have a feeling of fulfillment as we attend daily minyanim or a Shabbat service. Each of us finds comfort in a different way.

For each of you, it is my hope that the coming year will be one in which all of your resolutions will come true. Please remember that our synagogue is here for each of you. If I, or anyone in the office, can be of assistance to you, please don't hesitate to give us a call.

A happy New Year to each of you!!!

Bob Berkowitz, President

LOST COAT

Did you work at the set-up for the Etz Chayim/B'nai Israel Rummage Sale in October? Do you have a black lightweight puffy coat? Were there a pair of gray gloves in the pocket that weren't yours? Then you may have picked up the wrong coat. If so, please contact Elsa in the Etz Chayim office at 419-473-2401 so that you and the other coat's owner can be reunited with the correct coat.

THANK YOU FROM THE INTRAFaITH BLOOD DRIVE CHAIRMEN

The 2017 Annual Intrafaith Blood Drive was held at Congregation Etz Chayim on Sunday, November 12, 2017. It was a fine effort! The American Red Cross collected 22 units of whole blood, potentially enough to save 66 lives. All three chairs congratulate the Jewish Community!

The 2018 Blood Drive will be at Temple Shomer Emunim.

A huge thank you to all of our volunteers who helped as donor escorts, canteen workers, and encouragers, and to our 22 Blood Donors, without whom there would have been no Blood Drive. We had three new blood donors.

We are grateful to the administrative staff & board members of Congregation Etz Chayim for being instrumental in preparing for the 2017 annual drive.

The need for blood is constant. Emergencies do not take vacations. Please consider donating again.

THANK YOU ALL from Chairmen Alice Applebaum, Devorah Shulamit, and Elsa Leveton
