FROM THE RABBI

The More Things Change The More They Stay the Same

As I write this article I am slowly acclimating myself to the fact that morning minyan now starts at 7:30 a.m. I will admit that extra 45 minutes really makes a difference, especially this time of year.

Thank you to all of those who responded to the recent survey, and special gratitude to those who committed to be new attendees.

The battle to maintain morning minyan continues. Even with our new commitments our numbers are small. I ask two particularly important favors. First, if you have made a commitment to a certain day or responded to a direct request, please make every effort to honor that obligation. Additionally, if you know ahead of time that you cannot make your normal time, please let me know so I can have an opportunity to find a replacement.

Minyan is the ultimate in team sports. Ten is a magic number that allows us to say Kaddish, Kedushah, and Borchu. With nine or fewer we can do none of the three. That said, it is a great thing to have eleven, twelve, or even twenty. The more participation the better.

Looking forward to seeing all of you at minyan.

Rabbi Evan B. Rubin

FROM THE PRESIDENT

While the cold months are with us, the shul continues to plan many activities for our members to attend. Under the leadership of Nancy Jacobson, it is our hope that each of you will find the opportunity to participate. Each month, Nancy presents these activities on a large placard in the main hall for our members to see. They are also announced through the Hashomer, emailed to our members, and you will hear them via Rabbi Rubin at our Saturday Shabbat services.

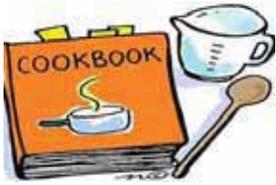

Why not choose one or more of them to attend? The success of our endeavors is totally dependent on our members. Like to read? Monthly we have a book discussion. Like to play games? On the first Sunday of each month we have poker and mahj. Discussions on various topics are offered at various times as well. The list goes on and on.

So, while it is cold outside, join us inside for lots of fun and education. If you need a ride to an activity, just call the synagogue and we will find a way to help you get there.

Hope to see you there.

Bob Berkowitz, President

SISTERHOOD NEWS

Purim is coming soon. Have you thought of making some delicious hamantashen, but don't have a good recipe? Our Sisterhood is selling a cookbook titled Recipes from Etz Chayim's Kitchen. Copies are available for purchase at a cost of $10. Our cookbooks make a great gift to give yourself or others.

All members of Etz Chayim should be on the lookout for a letter about the Purim Shaloch Manos fundraiser for 2018. Please fill the form out and send it with your check by February 16. These bags make great Purim gifts for family, friends, and acquaintances. We will need helpers to fill the Shaloch Manos bags on February 22. To volunteer or ask any questions you may have, contact Chairman Carol VanZile, 419-885-8248 (leave a message) or email her at glgtdk@gmail.com.

If you are not currently a member of Sisterhood and would like to join, please contact Suzie Rosenberg, Membership Chairman. Yearly dues are $20. If you are currently a member of Sisterhood or are planning to join now and you are 60 or over, you can become a Life Member for $200. Please contact Suzie at 419-536-7758 to get all the details on both categories of membership.

There will be no February meeting. The next Sisterhood Board meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, March 6, 2018, at 10:00 a.m. in the Shul Library. All Sisterhood members are invited to attend.

Congregation Etz Chayim Sisterhood thanks the following businesses for supporting the annual 2018 Donor.

Dorothy Phillips Camp Scholarships

Once again, Etz Chayim announces the Dorothy Phillips Camp Scholarship Fund.

This fund was made possible by a generous bequest of Dorothy Phillips, widow of Philip Phillips. The bequest allows that the money be used for programs to benefit youth. We encourage participation by our children in Jewish summer camp programs.

The earnings of the Dorothy Phillips Scholarship fund will be used for summer overnight camp programs for Etz Chayim children. The following criteria were established by the trustees to be used to determine an approved camp:

Observance of Shabbat
Observance of Kashrut
Jewish Programming
Not affiliated with another Synagogue movement

This would include, but not be limited to:

NCSY Camps
Young Judea Camps
JCC Camps
Approved Summer Israel Educational Experiences

Eligible students will be:

Children of synagogue members enrolled in Etz Chayim Sunday School or who have been confirmed at Etz Chayim.

The earnings of the fund will be distributed each year among the number of approved applicants. Applications are available in the synagogue office.

The deadline for accepting applications for the summer of 2018 is March 31, 2018.

GEORGE AND EVE DAVIDSON SCHOLARSHIP FUND

George and Eve Davidson, long time members of Congregation Etz Chayim, have created a generous endowment for the youth of the synagogue. The fund shall be used annually to send an Etz Chayim student, or students, from families who are unable financially and economically to do so themselves, for a summer or a year in Israel to study and to learn about Judaism and the Jewish people.

Included, for consideration, will be shorter trips which otherwise meet the designated guidelines.

If you are interested in applying for the summer of 2018, applications are available in the synagogue office. All applications are due by March 31, 2018.

Decisions will be made by the middle of April and all applicants will be notified.
