FROM THE RABBI

REFLECTIONS ON A SCHOOL YEAR

As I sit down to write we have just completed another year at the David S. Stone Religious School. Teaching has always been one of my favorite duties, and the current partnership with Congregation B'nai Israel has only increased that pleasure.

Kim Brody continues to be a principal who does everything to make sure that everyone's needs are met. Cantor Lichterman remains not only a good partner, but a better friend. I could not ask for better leadership.

The real success of any school, of course, is found in its student body. I am fortunate to have good students who are willing to come in after long school days and give up hours on Sundays. Additionally, we have families who are involved and engaged in the education process. All of these things put together make being a part of the David S. Stone Religious School a true joy.

I look forward to beginning another year in August. Have a great summer.

Rabbi Evan B. Rubin

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Every once in a while we inadvertently hear someone speak about a concept that becomes meaningful to them. As I listened to Dani Dayan, Consul General of Israel in New York, I heard him speak of the concept of Mitzvah. Often, each of us performs a mitzvah, such as giving to the needy, being an ear to someone in need, going to shul or simply just being kind to our fellow man. I believe that each of us may do these mitzvot without even thinking of them as a mitzvah.

Mr. Dayan spoke of a different kind of mitzvah. He spoke of what we, as parents, grandparents, or even great grandparents can do to promote the concept of Judaism with our younger generations. I looked within my mind to see what I have done with my children and grandchildren. Yes, I have promoted the celebration of different holidays as well as the religious meanings behind each of them. I made sure that as a family, we shared the importance of Shabbat. We did what we could to help our family members feel Jewish, in all ways.

Now, I see the benefits of impacting my children and grandchildren with this different type of mitzvah, one I never before thought of as a mitzvah. I kvell as I watch my granddaughter, attending a Jewish day school, share concepts I never learned. I kvell as I watch my children celebrate Shabbat with their children, placing their hands over their children's heads and reciting the priestly blessing.

And finally, I recognize the opportunity that each of us has to perform this "Mitzvah" with their younger generations. It is so important as we continue to perpetuate the concepts of Judaism with our young. I can only hope that each of you will take the time to make sure that this "Mitzvah" becomes a part of your daily routine.

Bob Berkowitz
President

JOINT SISTERHOOD BOOK CLUB

MY OWN WORDS by RUTH BADER GINSBURG

Thursday, July 12, 2018 at 1:30 p.m.
At Temple Shomer Emunim
Complimentary Afternoon Dessert Tea

The Joint Sisterhood Book Clubs of Congregations B'nai Israel, Etz Chayim, and Shomer Emunim announce our Summer Book Selection and Discussion:

My Own Words by Ruth Bader Ginsburg, with Mary Hartnett and Wendy W. Williams, copyright 2016, Simon & Schuster.

Discussion will be led by our own Marcy Steingroot

“The first book from Ruth Bader Ginsburg since becoming a Supreme Court Justice in 1993 - a witty, engaging, serious, and playful collection of writing and speeches from the woman who has had a powerful and enduring influence on law, women’s rights, and popular culture.

My Own Words offers Justice Ginsburg on wide-ranging topics, including gender equality, the workways of the Supreme Court, being Jewish, law and law-yers in opera, and the value of looking beyond U.S. shores when interpreting the U.S. Constitution.

This is a fascinating glimpse into the life of one of America’s most influential women.” [source: Simon & Schuster]

There are 12 copies of the book in various formats available at the Toledo-Lucas County Public Library plus more than 50 copies available through the Library’s Search Ohio feature.

Remembering our Loved Ones...

With the conclusion of the Shavuot holiday, we enter into the warm summer months. We remember the memories of our dear family members and friends as they continue to give us feelings of warmth, love, and continuity. Their presence is forever felt when we sift through those memories...growing up years, holidays, life-cycle events, picnics, ice-cream cones-even sorrowful times that were shared. There is little, if anything, that surpasses the warm embrace of a dear family member or friend.

Today our preparations begin for our Etz Chayim Yizkor Book, In Loving Memory. Again, shul members as well as members of the community will be invited to memorialize loved ones in this year's book. Letters and forms will soon be in the mail. Additionally, a form is included in this bulletin. Once more, we will continue our tradition of dedicating the book in honor of or in memory of someone special.

We thank all the wonderful families and individuals who have dedicated past Yizkor Books in honor of or in memory of their loved ones:
