FROM THE RABBI

GRATEFUL FOR MY COMMUNITY

As I sit down to write, it is but a few weeks since my father's passing. Needless to say, the range of emotions has been incredible, but my family and I continue to deal with day-to-day business. Much of the strength that has allowed us to do this has come from the support of our Jewish community.

For twenty-four years I have known that Congregation Etz Chayim, and by extension the entire Toledo Jewish community, is a family. Every individual is concerned with the wellbeing of all others. Never has that been more obvious to me than right now. From phone calls to cards, visits to bring food, and an overarching attitude of support and love, I promise that we all know that we are never alone. I greatly appreciate everything that has been done for us, and I love you all.

I do have one request. For many years I have been in charge of recruiting for minyan. It has been a privilege and an honor to make every effort I could so that others could say Kaddish. I now ask for myself. From now until Passover, I am beseeching all of you to help me during my time of need.

May the spirit of togetherness that pervades our community bring us strength and success in this effort.

Rabbi Evan B. Rubin

FROM THE PRESIDENT

The Long-Range Planning Committee of our Board of Trustees has been actively involved in considering the future of Congregation Etz Chayim. In the State of the Synagogue Report I presented last Yom Kippur I mentioned that many difficult decisions would need to be made during this past year. Those decisions primarily affected personnel expenses. This year's upcoming Yom Kippur State of the Synagogue report will continue in that vein, but even more so. In this coming report, I intend to be as transparent as possible regarding facts about our membership demographics, our state of finances, and participation in leadership, services and programming.

Our Long-Range Committee believes that this state of transition will be best met in the following ways:

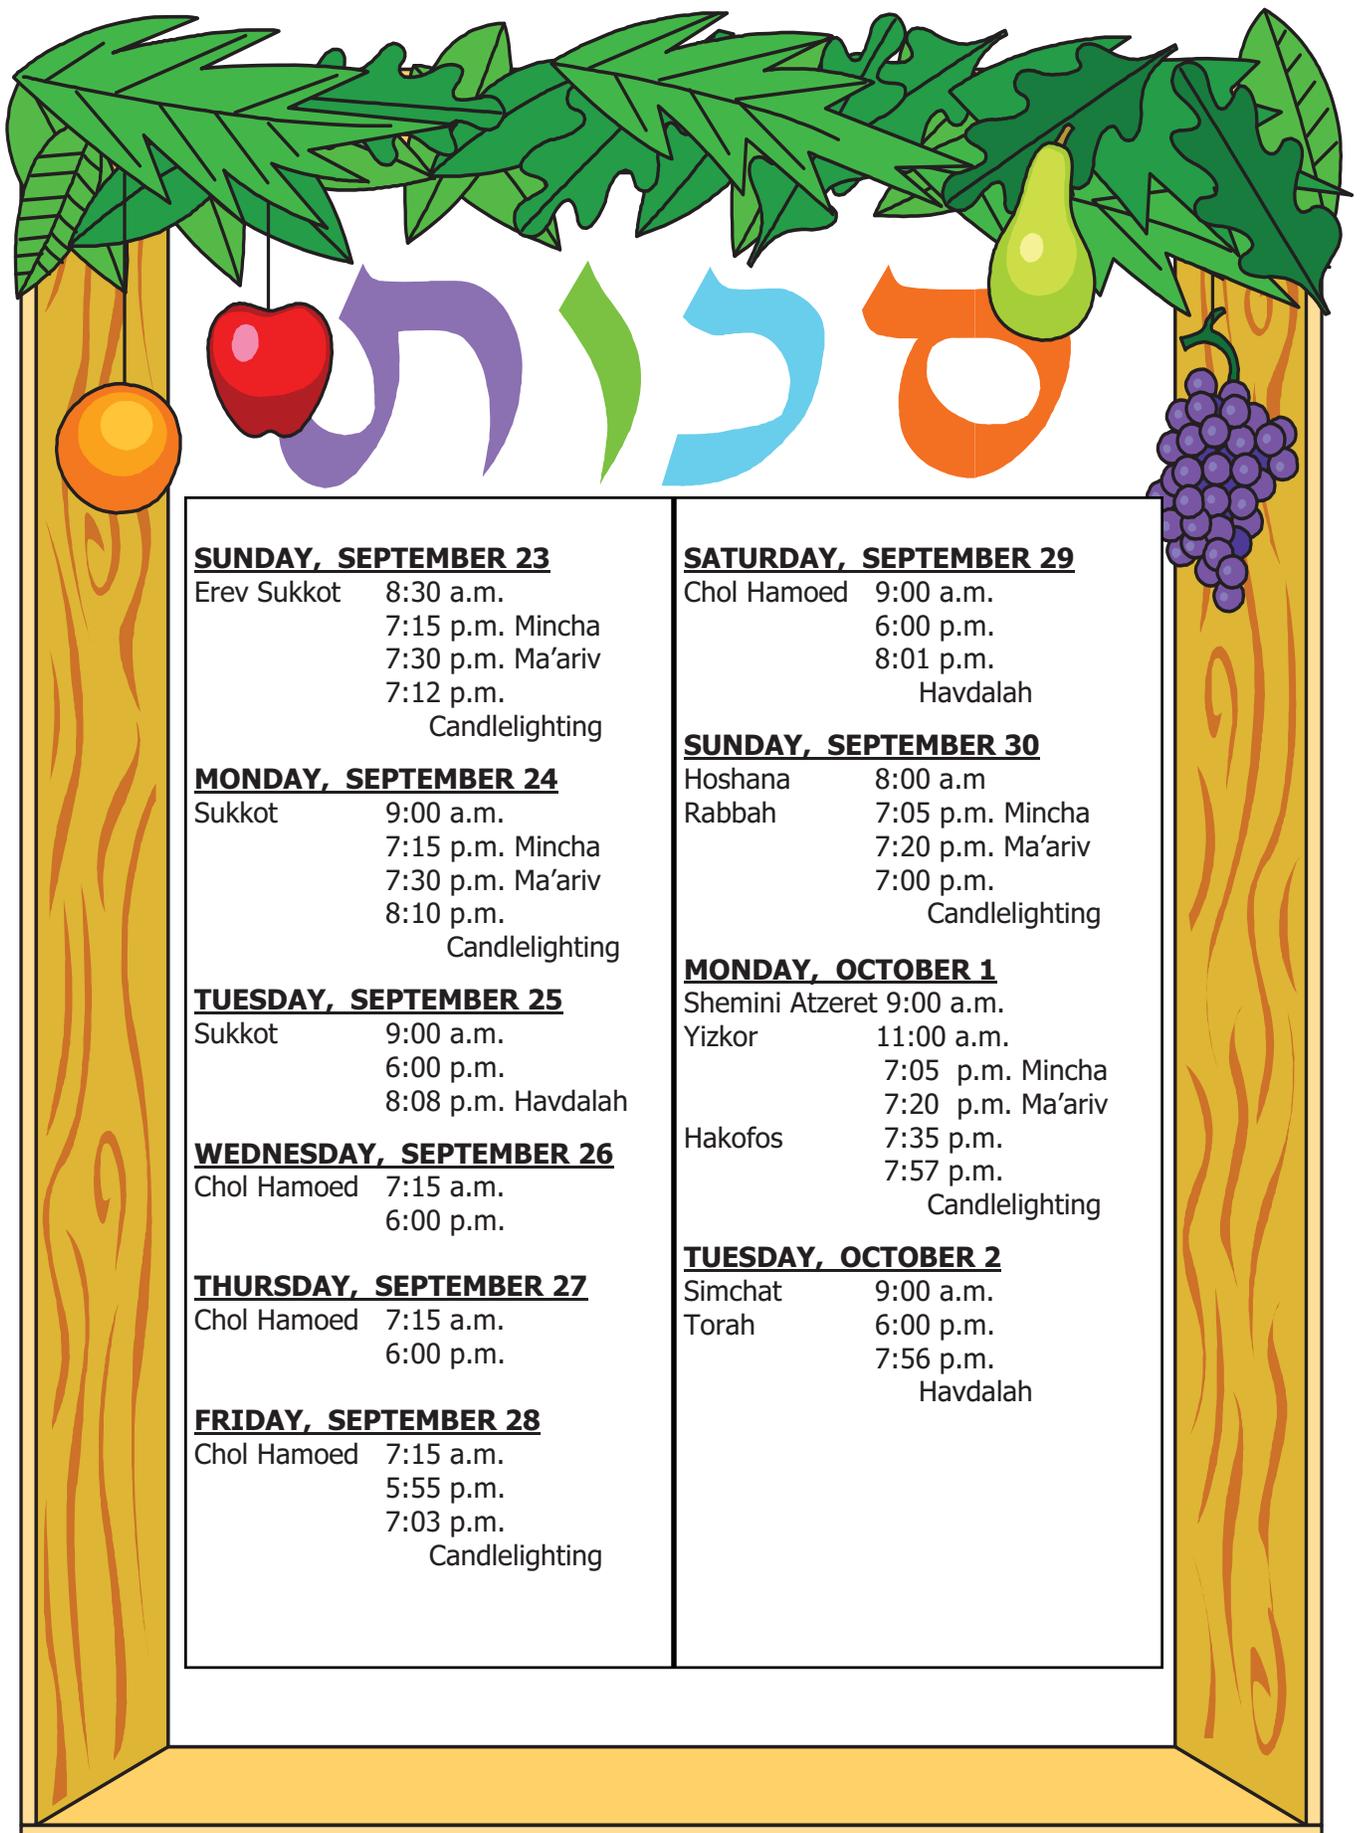

- ▶ Presentation of relevant facts to the membership on Yom Kippur.
- ▶ Congregational meetings in which facts can be reviewed, questions can be answered, and ideas of how to move forward can be discussed. We do have some ideas that have been developed by members of the committee, but believe that fresh ideas from members are equally important.

The dates of the congregational meetings will be Wednesday, October 3, 2018 at 1:00 p.m. and Thursday, October 4, 2018 at 7:00 p.m. You may attend whichever meeting is convenient for you.

The Etz Chayim Board of Trustees is facing serious decisions. This is your opportunity to have your voice heard and your questions answered and to help us regarding our future. Decisions made by the Board will affect the entire congregation.

Please call the office to let us know of your plans for attendance.

Bob Berkowitz
President

SEPTEMBER PROGRAMS PLANNED

Wishing Everyone A Sweet New Year.....

A New Year begins and the programs continue at Etz Chayim. We will continue to enjoy speakers, poker & mahj, movies, Birthday & Anniversary kiddush luncheons and Art Museum tours.

I would like to begin with a huge thank you to Gail Cooper for coming to meet with our "knitzvah" group to introduce "Baskets of Care". Our "knitzvah" volunteers will be meeting each month to knit and crochet special items for these baskets. They will combine a love of knitting and crocheting with the mitzvah of helping others.

Join us for a wonderful night out at the theater to see "Love Letters" starring Barbara Eden and Hal Linden on February 23, 2019. We have group tickets in rows 13 & 14 for $53.00 each. You must register and pay by September 23rd to reserve the tickets. Please call the office.

Another exciting program is a trip to the Maltz Museum in Beachwood, Ohio. Jewish heritage is shared through exhibitions, interactives & films, oral histories, photographs and artifacts. The trip is scheduled for Sunday, October 14th. More details regarding the time, cost and transportation will follow.

I am also delighted to announce that Dr. Yonatan Miller will be returning as our Sunday morning adult class leader on November 11th at 10:00 a.m. Come and enjoy Yonatan's most interesting and interactive session.

If you have any suggestions for programs, please email me at Jaco824@Bex.net.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

Etz Chayim Sisterhood wishes everyone Shana Tova and a year filled with Good Health, Happiness and Peace.

Our Sisterhood implemented a new Mitzvah project on August 21st. Our ladies are knitting or crocheting shawls for "Baskets of Care," a project under the supervision of Gail Cooper. These shawls benefit ladies who are undergoing treatment for breast cancer.

Many thanks go out to all of you who attended our Opening Tea on Sunday, August 26th. We had delicious pastries and fruit, and enjoyed musical entertainment provided by Shelly Plosscowe.

An apple and honey cooking demonstration on August 30th helped to get everyone inspired for the coming holidays with all new, yummy recipes.

The Etz Chayim/B'nai Israel fall Rummage Sale will be Sunday, November 4th and Monday, November 5th. People may drop off their rummage on October 28th and 29th. VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED! Please call Marcia Grossman at (419) 536-0890 or (419) 280-9633 or Diane Treuhaft at (419) 829-9986 or (419) 283-8363.
