FROM THE RABBI

What Difference Does an Hour Make?

Sixty minutes. A relatively small block of time. Seemingly insignificant in the big picture. Over the years, however, I have learned just how important one small hour is.

Purim begins this year on the evening of Wednesday, March 20. The date is significantly later than last year, as this year, 5779, is a leap year. Additionally, because of the schedule of daylight savings time, this year the times are an hour later than last year when Purim fell during standard time. The Megillah is not supposed to be read until nightfall. Unfortunately, that means we will begin the reading at approximately 8:30 p.m.

I promise you that nobody is more frustrated by the late time we experience here in the spring and summer than I am. I recognize just how inconvenient this is, especially given that Shacharit is earlier the following morning, beginning at 7:00 a.m. to accommodate the daytime Megillah reading. Nevertheless, we need to follow the law.

Despite the late hour, I hope you will be able to join us for Purim evening services, as well as the following day. The Rabbis tell us that the reward for observing any mitzvah is increased by the circumstances we must overcome to do so.

A happy and joyous Purim to all.

Rabbi Evan B. Rubin

FROM THE PRESIDENT

I would like to take this opportunity to thank our Long Range Planning Committee, under the leadership of Margie Siegel, for their continued efforts to ensure that what happens in our synagogue is in the best interest of all of our members.

Many changes are in the works for our shul. Meeting after meeting, our Board and committee members discuss how our shul will look in future years. Beginning with the survey, which each of you had the opportunity to participate in, we were able to review the results and will be making decisions based on those results that will affect each of us. Should you wish to review the survey results, you need only to call the synagogue office.

Our constitution, which was last updated in 1999, has been reviewed, changes have been made and will soon be made available for each of you to see. Our March Board meeting will be dedicated to presenting those changes to the Board for their input. I want to especially thank Charles Wittenberg, Steve Marcus and Naomi Baron for their assistance and expertise with this process.

And finally, a reminder to each of our members. While you do not have the opportunity of voting at our meetings, your attendance is certainly welcome. We will always welcome your comments. Board meetings are held November through March on the fourth Sunday of each month, and April through October on the fourth Thursday of the month.

Bob Berkowitz,
President

SISTERHOOD NEWS

Many thanks to everyone for their generous donations to Sisterhood's delicious and very successful Shalach Manos Bag fundraising campaign. Bag pick-up is on Sunday, March 17 from 9:00 a.m. to noon and on Monday and Tuesday March 18 and 19 from 10:00 a.m. to noon.

Sisterhood is no longer charging dues. We are now offering FREE memberships to all ladies who are members of Congregation Etz Chayim.

Our next Sisterhood Board Meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, March 5, 2019, at 10:15 a.m. in the Etz Chayim library. All Sisterhood members are welcome to attend.

LADIES PARSHA OF THE WEEK CLASS

Each Wednesday from February 13 through April 3, and from 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. there will be a rotating leader-based discussion on the upcoming parsha of the week. Rebbetzin Kerry Rubin led the first two sessions. All ladies are invited to attend. Please call the office for information and to RSVP.

PROGRAM NEWS

March is here and spring is in the air. We have a variety of programs for everyone to enjoy. I'm excited to see the participation at our programs during the past few months. It is so nice to have our Etz Chayim family and friends come together more often.

I was so proud of the number of volunteers who represented Etz Chayim at the Cherry Street Mission in December to help serve food and socialize. I often receive notices from the Mission asking for volunteers, so if you would be interested in the future, please contact me.

Since this community service was so positive, I have scheduled a group of 10-20 volunteers to help at Ronald McDonald House on Sunday, March 31 to make lunch, vacuum and clean. We are responsible for bringing the food, so I am also asking volunteers to help do the shopping and donate items for lunch. Once people register, I will plan a meeting to organize all the details.

It was great to have ladies come for mahj last month on Sunday. This was the first time since we started that we had two tables! Everyone is welcome. Please don't hesitate to come, even if you are a beginner.

The men continue to enjoy their poker games. Come have fun!

SAVE THE DATE: Toledo Museum of Art Tour: Trains. With our very own docent Andrea Delman on Sunday, April 28 at 2:00 p.m. Only $8.00 per person. Please call the Etz Chayim office to register.

If you have any questions or ideas for programs, please don't hesitate to contact me. Many thanks for your support.

Warmly,
Nancy Jacobson
