To Life: How Israeli Volunteers are Changing the World

This documentary is an amazing look at five Israeli organizations dedicated to helping people across the globe. This is a story about Israel you won't see in the news. In keeping with the Jewish tradition of tikkun olam ("repairing the world"), Israel has been at the forefront of humanitarian and disaster relief work since the 1950s, less than a decade after becoming a nation. Since then, the Jewish state has provided humanitarian aid to millions of people in 140 countries around the world. Featuring stunning cinematography and moving interviews, To Life follows Israeli volunteers in Uganda, Nepal, Greece, Kurdistan, and the Palestinian territories to find out how and why, with so many security challenges of their own, they reach out so effectively to help other nations.

On display will be a Holocaust Art Exhibit created by the students of McCord Junior High School.

FROM THE RABBI

Reflecting on a Year of Mourning

As I sit down to write this, I find myself looking back at the year that has just about passed since my father, Of Blessed Memory, passed away. So much has happened that on some level it feels like an eternity. On the other hand, I can still feel his last embrace as if it happened yesterday.

Interestingly for me, the end of my mourning period coincides with a period of national mourning, which occurs during the Omer. In fact, my personal mourning and its customs get extended by a few days because of the Omer. The year for my father ends at Pesach Sheni (the second Passover). This was the day reserved for those who could not bring the Passover sacrifice on Passover due to impurity. This falls on the calendar four days before Lag B'Omer, the traditional end of the thirty-three days of mourning during the Omer.

So now my family returns to its regularly scheduled life. Normal has a new meaning. The value of family is amplified. My father and his influence on all of us will never disappear. It just comes now in a different form. When the unveiling is scheduled I will let everyone know.

May we only share happiness from now on.

Rabbi Evan B. Rubin

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Spring has finally arrived and soon we will all find the flowers blooming in our yards and in our synagogue gardens. What a great image to help raise our spirits to ones of smiles and laughter. All is well at our shul. We continue to plan many events for each of you to participate in – a great way for each of us to interact with our friends. You need only to make that happen.

Nancy Jacobson works very hard to plan events for all of our members. From speakers to art museum visits to game days, religious activities and so much more. Please make it a part of your plans to participate in some of these activities. If you are in need of a ride, just call the office and we will help provide transportation for you. Of course, for our gentlemen, we continue to count on you to help make a minyan. Truly, this is an important part of our Jewish life. Please try and give us a day when you are willing to help out in the morning at 7:30 AM or evening at 6:00 PM.

So, take the time to smell the roses, become active in our synagogue functions and enjoy both what the spring and the shul has to offer for each of you.

Bob Berkowitz, President

ANDREA SUE LUBLIN

ETZ CHAYIM SISTERHOOD 2019 WOMAN OF THE YEAR

Etz Chayim Sisterhood is proud to announce Andrea Lublin as their choice for the 2019 Woman of the Year.

Woman of the Year

Andrea was born in Detroit, Michigan and grew up in both Oak Park and Saginaw, Michigan. She graduated from Michigan State University in 1975 with a degree in education specializing in teaching children with behavioral disorders. While at Michigan State, she met her husband Jeffery Lublin and moved to Toledo in 1977. She then attended the University of Toledo and received a master's degree in 1980 in Educational Technology with a specialty in Instructional Design.

Andrea taught for 35 years for the Swanton Board of Education, first at the junior high level, then in the elementary school, teaching mainly students with learning disabilities. She formally retired in 2012.

Jeff and Andrea, who have been married for almost 42 years, have two sons, Jeremy, 36 years old and Stephan, 33 years old who is married to Lali. Both boys are musicians and Steve is also a chef who graduated from LeCordon Bleu in Paris.

Since retiring, Andrea has been actively involved in the Etz Chayim Sisterhood. She is currently Co-President with Diane Treuhaft. Andrea is very creative and prepares the beautiful fliers for the Sisterhood, as well as table decorations for various Sisterhood and synagogue events. She also is a great volunteer in the synagogue kitchen. Andrea also is a member of the Etz Chayim Board of Trustees.

In her spare time, Andrea loves reading novels, playing Mah Jongg, and cooking and baking. She and Jeff love to travel. They have been to Israel, France, Thailand, London, Vienna, Bratislava, and Budapest. In addition, they have been on Caribbean cruises and a Mediterranean cruise. Just recently they purchased an RV and plan to tour the U.S. and Canada.

Andrea is very honored and humbled to receive the honor of being named "Sisterhood Woman of the Year".

UPCOMING PROGRAMS

We are so fortunate to bring special Etz Chayim family and friends together to share programs, activities, holiday, Shabbat, and special occasions. I would like to begin with a huge thank-you to Fran Weinblatt, Carol & Mike VanZile, Renee Jacobson, Rochelle & Gina Black, and Sandy Marcus. We volunteered our time to help prepare lunch at the Ronald McDonald House on a Sunday morning in March. Sandy volunteered to do all the grocery shopping for the items needed for the meal. It was a wonderful experience for all of us, knowing that we provided a meal for the people at the home to enjoy and relieve them of one worry during their stressful day. Also, thank you to Bobby Berkowitz, Elsa Leveton, Fran Wexler, and Sandy Marcus who made monetary donations to help defray the cost of the luncheon.

Another huge thank you goes to Ken Pargament for leading an inspiring discussion following the Brundibar movie on April 14th.

I am actively looking for people to lead discussions during Sunday adult class. If anyone has an interest that they would like to share with others, please contact me at 419-360-2492 or Jaco824@Bex.net.

Itzhak Perlman is scheduled to perform with the Toledo Symphony at the Art Museum Peristyle on Tuesday, November 12, 2019. I am already working with group sales to arrange for tickets. Reservations need to be made by Monday, July 22 for the 20% group discount. If you are interested in attending this very special event, please call the shul office at 419-473-2401. Ticket prices will be forthcoming.

Come enjoy a program in May.

Inheritance: A Memoir of Genealogy, Paternity, and Love
by Dani Shapiro

Cathy Sperling will be the discussion leader.

In the spring of 2016, through a genealogy website to which she had whimsically submitted her DNA, Dani Shapiro received the astonishing news that her beloved deceased father was not her biological father. Over the course of a single day, her entire history—the life she had lived—crumbled beneath her. In just a few hours of Internet sleuthing, she was able to piece together the story of her conception and, remarkably, find a YouTube video of her biological father—his face and mannerisms eerily similar to her own.

Dani Shapiro's memoir unfolds at a breakneck pace—part mystery, part real-time investigation, part rumination on the ineffable combination of memory, history, biology, and experience that makes us who we are. A haunting interrogation of the meaning of kinship and identity, written with stunning intensity and precision—Dani Shapiro's most intimate and compelling work yet.

The book is available at the Toledo Lucas County Public Library and its affiliates on Search Ohio, through Amazon.com, and Barnes & Noble.
