FROM THE RABBI

PREPARATION FOR THE HIGH HOLIDAYS

Many things we do require some sort of activity beforehand. An athlete may stretch or otherwise exercise before engaging in competition. A singer may do various things to warm up before a concert. Religious observances can be put in this category as well.

The Code of Jewish Law mentions that one should prepare an hour every day before praying to Hashem. Unfortunately, this is not achievable for most of us with our busy lives and schedules. We do make preparations, however, before Rosh Hashanah. Beginning with the first day of Elul we blow the shofar every morning except Shabbat to remind ourselves that Rosh Hashanah is coming. We also recite Psalm 27 in the morning and evening, recognizing Hashem as the source of our salvation.

On the Saturday night before Rosh Hashanah we begin to say Selichot, special prayers of supplication. We need to say at least four days of Selichot before Rosh Hashanah, so if Rosh Hashanah falls on Monday or Tuesday, as it does this year, we begin on the Saturday night one week earlier, or about ten days before the holiday. These recitations further help to get us in the mood to celebrate the new year.

By the time we walk into the synagogue on the evening of September 29, we hopefully will be ready and excited to bring in the year 5780. May it indeed be a year in which we are all inscribed and sealed for all things good.

Rabbi Evan B. Rubin

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Summer is quickly passing us by and we will soon find ourselves in the fall season. Fall signals beautiful, colorful leaves, fresh smells and the taste of a new beginning.

So it is as we look to our upcoming High Holiday season. It is a time for each of us to reflect upon the past year and to make new commitments for the New Year. Ecclesiastes tells us that there is a time for the old and a time for the new. As we enter into this holiday season, each of us should look not at what the synagogue can do for us, but what we can do for our synagogue and the Jewish community.

There was a time at the High Holidays when our sanctuary was filled from the front of the room to the back of the social hall. There was a time when one could only find a parking space on the back lawn. Many things have changed over the course of the years. And yes, change is a difficult concept to endure. Let us not forget why we come to the synagogue.

Let this holiday season not only be a time to remember the past, but also a time to look towards the future. Please make sure that each of you takes the time to see how you can help the synagogue. Make sure that your dues are current and on time. Gentlemen, make it a point of coming to minyan at least one time a week, if not more.

Everyone should support the many wonderful activities that are offered to you. Support our shul in every way possible.

As we enter into the High Holiday season, on behalf of the Board, the officers and our staff, I wish each of you a meaningful year to come. May it be a year of good health and all that is good, in every way.

Bob Berkowitz
President

SEPTEMBER PROGRAMS PLANNED

Many of us were lucky to be a part of the cooking demonstration in August to hear the recipes for Mishpocha Soup and Layered Tuna Salad from Renee Jacobson and Elsa Leveton. Renee's Yiddish humor added fun to her presentation. Everyone enjoyed the food and the time together socializing.

I spent 2 weeks working in the office during the summer. I would like to take the time to mention my deepest appreciation to all those people who come into the shul to work and/or volunteer each day, whether you are working in the office, kitchen or spending time at a meeting. Thank you so much for your time, support & energy. Etz Chayim continues because of you....

We have so much for you to look forward to during the next year, 5780. Programs and events will continue to be planned to offer education and socialization for all.

Don't forget our Etz Chayim Outreach program. Please continue to bring in honey, grape juice, consomme', and matzo ball mix for Jewish Family Service. They will be putting together Rosh Hashanah baskets for families. You may also include your favorite recipe written on an index card. ALL ITEMS MUST BE KOSHER AND ARE DUE BY THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 12. Bring the items and your recipes to our office. Thank you so much.

A special Catered Kiddush lunch is planned for Saturday, September 14. This is our Shabbat Learning Session with Aviva Panush and our Birthday/Anniversary celebration. PRE-REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED! PLEASE REGISTER BY THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 5.

Family and friends, I hope you will continue to join us for our programs. If you have any ideas or suggestions for future programs, please feel free to contact me through the synagogue office.

Israel at Our Doorstep: Israeli Election Analysis

Sponsored by Temple Shomer Emunim, Congregation B'nai Israel, Congregation Etz Chayim, and Jewish Federation of Greater Toledo Jewish Community Relations Council

Thursday, September 19 at 7 p.m. – 8 p.m.

Temple Shomer Emunim

Free. No solicitation.

The Toledo Jewish community is invited to hear Israel Educator Yoni Alon discuss the results of the 2019 "snap election" held two days prior in Israel. On May 30, 2018, the Knesset voted to dissolve itself due to incumbent Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's failure to form a governing coalition, the first such failure in Israeli history. Because of the Israeli electoral system, the prime minister will not yet be known, but Alon will touch on the 120 members voted to make up the 22nd Knesset and who President Rivlin decided to invite in hopes to form a coalition. Learn which parties are in, which parties are out, how many seats each party has, and more critical results from the election. There will be a question and answer period after the analysis.

Yoni Alon is a Tel Aviv native. He served in the Israel Defense Force for seven-and-a-half years in various roles, including as a liaison officer connecting the U.S. military with the IDF.
