FROM THE RABBI

SWIFTLY FLOW THE YEARS

It feels like yesterday that I was sitting in Toledo Hospital holding a newborn baby, but, indeed, almost twelve years have passed. Preparations are well underway for Penina's Bat Mitzvah, which will take place, G-d willing, on the evening of October 26. We will make Havdallah at approximately 8:00 p.m., and a celebratory dinner will follow. The invitation can be found elsewhere in this Hashomer.

Kerry and I, of course, are greatly looking forward to celebrating our simcha with family and friends at the conclusion of Shabbat Bereishit. The idea of a big meal after Shabbat, however, is actually centuries old. Many refer to this meal as the meal of King David. King David knew through prophecy that he would die on Shabbat. As a result, surviving Shabbat meant he had at least another week to live. He acknowledged this by feasting at the conclusion of Shabbat, a practice still followed today.

We hope that you are able to join us as we mark Penina's ascension to adulthood. We all wish her mazel tov and continued success, always going from strength to strength.

Rabbi Evan B. Rubin

FROM THE PRESIDENT

My message this month will be last as my tenure as president will end in November. With my departure, I know that our shul will remain in good hands as president-elect Steve Marcus will take over the leadership.

The past three years have been filled with many changes; some happy times and certainly some times that were more difficult. But this article is not about me.

Rather, it is a thank you to all of you who supported me during my tenure, those who worked behind the scenes to ensure that our religious requirements were met, for those who planned and carried out social events to bring all of us together to celebrate life. The list is far too large to begin to name names. To each of you, I offer my sincere thanks.

My hope is that each of you will give the new administration all of your support and assistance. It truly does take the whole village to make everything run smoothly. I look forward to seeing you in shul for the high holidays as well as presenting the state of the synagogue to you.

May the coming year be one filled with peace, with good health and many simchas.

A collaborative program by Jewish Federation of Greater Toledo, Jewish Community Relations Council, Gan Yeladim Preschool, Congregation B'nai Israel, Congregation Etz Chayim, Temple Shomer Emunim, and Anti-Defamation League

Alana Bandos organizes anti-bias education as the education director for the Anti-Defamation League – Cleveland office, which serves Ohio, Kentucky, West Virginia, and Western Pennsylvania. Her role includes collaborating with principals, school administrators, and faculty at K-12 schools and college campuses to design custom anti-bias and bullying prevention workshops for staff and students. Bandos also responds to complaints of anti-Semitism and general bias incidents in schools. She will speak to parents and community members about current trends in anti-Semitism and what their children may encounter in school and beyond. Bandos will also address some basic tools and strategies available to parents to respond to anti-Semitic comments and incidences.

Prior to ADL, Bandos served as student life coordinator Kent State University Hillel, where she developed social and religious programs for hundreds of Jewish college students. She attended University of Wisconsin – Madison and has a graduate-level certificate in experiential Jewish education. In her spare time, Bandos volunteers with local nonprofits, coordinating fundraising events for Girls on the Run and the Wisconsin Alumni Association – Northeast Ohio Chapter.

In addition to her parents and loving sisters, Rochael and Chana, Penina is greatly looking forward to sharing her simcha with family and friends from near and far. Her grandmothers, Mrs. Barbara Rubin of Toledo, and Mrs. Rollie Solomon of Marietta, Georgia, as well as aunts, uncles, and cousins will be joining Penina for this wonderful occasion.
