FROM THE RABBI

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS - A RETROSPECTIVE

L'hitraot!

As my family and I prepare for the next chapter in our lives, I find myself reminiscing quite a bit. Twenty-five years is a long time in the life of a man, and my career here is filled with wonderful memories. The relationships created in Toledo will always be a part of me.

One of my past presidents told me to never believe that where I am is where I will always be, but, admittedly, Toledo has had almost a magnetic hold on me. In some sense I grew up here. I definitely learned what it means to be a clergyman here. I cannot thank Rabbi Garsek enough for all of the things he taught me, and for the love with which he did it. Without him I would not be who I am today.

One of the greatest lessons that Rabbi Garsek taught me was the importance of being part of the community. Over the years I have learned so much from so many, and for that I am eternally grateful. Our community has some of the most wonderful people the world has to offer, and I consider myself fortunate to call you my family.

As a new adventure is about to begin, I promise you that out of sight is not out of mind. I look forward to keeping in touch with my Toledo family. There could be an occasion that brings the Rubin family back to Ohio, and any of you are welcome to come see us in Sacramento. L'hitraot.

Rabbi Evan B. Rubin

FROM THE PRESIDENT

I am writing this article the second week of May and have no way to know what June and July will be like for all of us. I only hope that everyone stays safe and healthy.

By the time I write the next article for the August Hashomer, we will all have given the Rabbi and his family our best wishes for their future in California. The opportunity to be the leader of the Keneset Israel Torah Center in Sacramento could not be passed up by Rabbi Rubin even though he will be sorely missed by all here in Toledo. For a quarter of a century, Etz Chayim has been the home for Evan, Kerry, his children and his parents. So many great memories have been made and will not be forgotten. From becoming our young Hazzan to our religious leader as Rabbi, Evan will always hold a special place in Etz Chayim history.

The congregation is again moving onto its next chapter with the guidance of your Board of Trustees and leaders. As we all work together, the future, no matter what it brings, will continue with the strong family that Congregation Etz Chayim has always been.

Steve Marcus

Each day we are getting one day closer to being together with our Etz Chayim family and friends at shul. We will need to take small, safe steps, but we will be back together soon. During the next couple months, June & July, I have planned a couple of learning sessions which will happen either at shul or by "Zoom." It is important that the programs continue, and that we stay together - even if we need to do it virtually.

I am honored to have scheduled Rabbi Rubin to lead his last Etz Chayim Sunday morning Adult class before starting his new and exciting chapter of his life. The class is planned for Sunday, June 28 at 10:00 a.m. If we are able, the session will be at shul with a light breakfast served. If not, I will send you the "Zoom" link to join the class. The topic will be the three weeks leading up to Tisha B'Av, which will include a discussion of the history and current practices related to this period.

I am also delighted to announce that Aviva Panush will be returning to lead a learning session in July through "Zoom" on Sunday, July 26. Aviva brings meaningful insights to her sessions and allows for interesting and interactive discussions.

If anyone has any suggestions or questions, or would like help on accessing any of our Zoom activities, please do not hesitate to call me at 419-360-2492 or email me at Jaco824@Bex.net.

*Warm Thoughts,
Nancy Jacobson, Program Director*

TISHA B'AV

Tisha B'Av, the Fast of the Ninth of Av, is a day of mourning to commemorate the many tragedies that have befallen the Jewish people, many of which have occurred on the ninth of Av. Tisha B'Av means "the ninth (day) of Av". This year it falls on Wednesday evening/Thursday, July 29/30.

Although this holiday is primarily meant to commemorate the destruction of the Temple, it is appropriate to consider on this day the many other tragedies of the Jewish people, many of which occurred on this day, most notably the expulsion of the Jews from Spain in 1492 and from England in 1290.

Tisha B'Av is the culmination of a three week period of increasing mourning, beginning with the fast of the 17th of Tammuz, which commemorates the first breach in the walls of Jerusalem, before the First Temple was destroyed. During this three week period, weddings and other parties are not permitted, and people refrain from cutting their hair. From the first to the ninth of Av, it is customary to refrain from eating meat or drinking wine (except on the Shabbat) and from wearing new clothing.

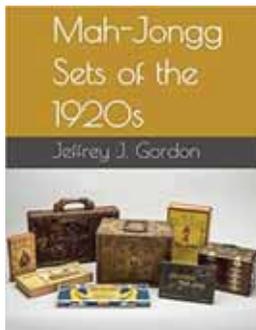

The restrictions on Tisha B'Av are similar to those on Yom Kippur: to refrain from eating and drinking (even water); washing, bathing, shaving or wearing cosmetics; wearing leather shoes; engaging in sexual relations; and studying Torah. Work in the ordinary sense of the work (rather than the Shabbat sense) is also restricted. People who are ill need not fast on this day. Many of the traditional mourning practices are observed: people refrain from smiles, laughter and idle conversation, and sit on low stools.

In the synagogue, the book of Lamentations is read and mourning prayers are recited. Tisha B'Av is never observed on Shabbat. If the 9th of Av falls on a Saturday, the fast is postponed until the 10th of Av.

Please check the July calendar at the front of the Hashomer for Tisha B'Av service times.

Mah-Jongg Sets of the 1920s
by Jeffrey J. Gordon

Jeff Gordon will be attending the luncheon to speak about his book and to sign copies.

Mah-Jongg Sets of the 1920s is a comprehensive and beautifully illustrated guide to the earliest Mah-Jongg sets in the U.S. First, it encompasses the geography, history, Jewish contribution, exceptional importance of Mah-Jongg in 1920s popular culture, and descriptions of Mah-Jongg set components and their functions in actual play. Then, it provides detailed and illustrated coverage of the many varieties of 1920s Mah-Jongg sets in terms of their boxes, tiles, dice, wind discs, counters, instruction booklets, racks and tables. This welcome book fills a gap and is sure to be appreciated by countless Mah-Jongg players and collectors.

The book is available through Amazon.com, Books-A-Million, and other on-line booksellers.

Remembering our Loved Ones...

With the conclusion of the Shavuot holiday, we enter into the warm summer months. We remember the memories of our dear family members and friends as they continue to give us feelings of warmth, love, and continuity. Their presence is forever felt when we sift through those memories...growing up years, holidays, life-cycle events, picnics, ice-cream cones-even sorrowful times that were shared. There is little, if anything, that surpasses the warm embrace of a dear family member or friend.

Today our preparations begin for our Etz Chayim Yizkor Book, In Loving Memory. Again, shul members as well as members of the community will be invited to memorialize loved ones in this year's book. Letters and forms will soon be in the mail. Additionally, a form is included in this bulletin. Once more, we will continue our tradition of dedicating the book in honor of or in memory of someone special. IF YOU ARE INTERESTED IN DEDICATING THIS YEAR'S YIZKOR BOOK IN MEMORY OF OR IN HONOR OF A SPECIAL PERSON OR FAMILY IN YOUR LIFE, PLEASE CONTACT ELSA IN THE OFFICE AS SOON AS POSSIBLE.
