FROM THE PRESIDENT

If it were a "normal" September, we all would be contacting friends and family to coordinate times to gather together for the High Holidays. We would be looking forward to celebrating the New Year with our Etz Chayim "family" at shul as well as reflecting on the past year and making new commitments for the upcoming year 5781.

Safety and the well-being of all is of the utmost importance to the Board and its officers. Clergy arrangements have already been made for the Holidays with the leadership of our synagogue arranging for the proper protocols to be in effect. By September, final decisions will most likely have been made relating to these matters.

No matter how Etz Chayim members experience the High Holidays this year, we can still celebrate the fact that Jews around the world will be joining us in prayer and be grateful we have the support and well wishes of everyone.

On behalf of the Board, the officers and our Etz Chayim staff, I wish each and every one of you a safe, healthy and meaningful 5781. L'Shana Tova!

*Steve Marcus
President*

IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING THE HIGH HOLIDAYS

The Etz Chayim Board of Trustees, after much deliberation and consideration, has voted to cancel all Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur holiday services for this year. Due to Covid-19, the risk to our clergy, congregants and staff was deemed too high to proceed with services inside the synagogue. Many other options were discussed, but in the end, cancelling was the only logical option. The synagogue will still host Rabbi Yehoshua Mizrachi for ten days from before Rosh Hashana until after Yom Kippur. We will be featuring programs while he is here that he will lead in person outside as well as by Zoom. A few of these programs might include:

- Pre-holiday services and sermon with shofar blowing (outside)
- Classes prior to Tuesday & Thursday minyans (outside)
- Cemetery visits with prayers between Rosh Hashana & Yom Kippur
- Tashlich service at Olander Park in Sylvania
- Sunday, Sept. 27, (erev Yom Kippur,) sermon (Zoom)

Also note that we will be having a Meet & Greet for Rabbi Mizrachi on Zoom on Sunday, Sept. 13 at 7:15 p.m. Please contact the shul office at 419-473-2401 for the Zoom link.

A letter will be sent to the congregation highlighting these events. Emails will also be sent to congregants and members of the community with further the details.

An Evening in Honor of Philip Markowicz

Sunday, September 13, 4:00 p.m.

The University of Toledo, College of Arts and Letters
via Videoconference

The University of Toledo, with Dr. Allen Markowicz and Professor Sylvia Markowicz Neil, will be honoring the life and legacy of the late Philip Markowicz with an online celebration of the release of his recently published book, Losing God in Translation: A Study of the Hebrew Bible. This event will include the announcement of the Philip Markowicz Endowed Professorship in Judaism and Jewish Biblical Studies and conclude with a lecture from the new Endowed Assistant Professor, Dr. Yonatan S. Miller.

Philip Markowicz was born in 1924 in Przerab, Poland. The son of a rabbi, Philip was known as a Talmud prodigy but his yeshiva education was interrupted by the Nazi invasion of Poland. He survived the ghetto of Lodz, several concentration camps, including Auschwitz, and a death march -- his entire family with the exception of his brother having been murdered by the Nazis. After being liberated by the Allies, he met and married his wife, Ruth, in a Displaced Persons camp and started their family. Philip and his young family would then emigrate to Toledo, where, with no connections or resources, he trained himself in electronics and created a thriving business.

Philip continued his passion for Torah study and wrote extensively in his retirement. He published a well-received autobiography, My Three Lives, and shortly before his passing in 2017, he completed the manuscript for Losing God in Translation.

The publication of this text inaugurates a new series from the University of Toledo Press, with the imprint of the university's Center for Religious Understanding. The first part of the evening will celebrate its release.

Philip's children, Dr. Allen Markowicz and Professor Sylvia Markowicz Neil, together with their spouses Hindea Markowicz and Daniel Fischel, have for the past two decades supported a faculty position in Jewish studies at The University of Toledo. Thanks to their generous gift, the University will announce the newly created Philip Markowicz Endowed Professorship in Judaism and Jewish Biblical Studies, and the installation of Dr. Yonatan S. Miller in this position. Dr. Miller, who holds a PhD in Biblical studies from Harvard University and has been teaching at The University of Toledo since 2016, will conclude the evening with a short keynote lecture, "Reality as Spirituality: The Theology of Philip Markowicz."

To receive the link to this event please RSVP by September 9, 2020 to Debbie Corkins at deborah.corkins@utoledo.edu or 419.530.4616. You can find additional information about the book at www.utoledopress.com/LosingGod.html
