FROM THE PRESIDENT

First I want to wish everyone a happy Sukkot and a joyous Simchat Torah. Being unable to gather together during these times has been difficult for all. Zoom meetings are nice but it is the ability to shake hands and give hugs that are so badly missed.

I wish to particularly thank both Elsa and Nancy for arranging for great programming during the High Holidays. As you can see, October already has a number of great programs on the schedule.

I continue to thank you all for your support of the Shul in this year of 5781. The state of the synagogue is good from a financial viewpoint. We have been contacted by several Rabbis inquiring about the need to replace Rabbi Rubin. Due to the COVID-19 situation, however, since we are not having services or other in-person programming and are unable to invite potential Rabbis for face-to-face interviews, we are currently investigating other options to fulfill the needs of our members. The Board will continue to review the situation.

Lastly, thank you to all who have volunteered to assist the Shul in so many ways. Of special note is a thank you to Margie Siegel and Aileen Pargament for their hard work gathering foodstuffs for the Food Project.

*Steve Marcus
President*

OCTOBER PROGRAMS PLANNED

A New Year has begun. Our programs are planned with you in mind.

We want everyone to be involved and have fun here at Etz Chayim. Getting together on Zoom is important and a way for our Etz Chayim family to stay connected.

We are honored to have Rabbi Jason Goldstein lead two Zoom classes during the holidays of Sukkot, Shemini Atzeret, and Simchat Torah. Rabbi Goldstein of Bala Cynwyd, Pennsylvania, graduated from Brandeis University with a degree in history and Near Eastern and Judaic studies. He was ordained as a rabbi in June by Yeshivat Chovevei Torah of Riverdale, New York, where he studied for the last four years.

Rabbi Goldstein's first class is Thursday, October 1 at 7:30 p.m. on Zoom. The title of the class is "Sitting in the Clouds of Glory: Transitioning from Yom Kippur to Sukkot." This class is the day before Sukkot begins. The class will include an examination of midrashim about the Israelites' time wandering in the desert and a discussion comparing their fragility with our own.

Rabbi Goldstein's second Zoom class is scheduled for Thursday, October 8 at 7:30 p.m. and titled "Moshe's Final Farewell: Leadership in Times of Change." We will reflect on how Moshe's leadership style can serve as a paradigm today through a study of select verses of Moshe's final address.

I am also very excited to announce that Rabbi Jonathan Bienenfeld will be leading a Sunday Adult class on Sunday, December 6 at 10:00 a.m. His topic will be "Chanukah." He was delighted to hear from me and is looking forward to seeing everyone on Zoom.

We will only be playing mahj twice this month, on October 18 and 25 due to Sukkot and Simchat Torah.

Another very special program on Sunday evening, October 25 at 7:30 p.m. is a combined book and artwork discussion on Zoom. Naomi Baron will lead the discussion of The Secret Chord by Geraldine Brooks. The Secret Chord is a novel based on the life of King David. Following the book discussion, Andrea Delman, our favorite Toledo Museum of Art Docent, will take us on a "tour" of art associated with the book.

Before I end, I would like to say a huge thank you to Margie Siegel for being a wonderful chef. "Cooking with Margie" in September was a lot of fun and a true success. Margie put so much time and effort into this to make sure everything was perfect - and it was!!

Come join us for all these wonderful programs.

Warm Thoughts,
Nancy Jacobson
Program Director

Please R.S.V.P. to the Kerry Rubin, 419-290-4101, by

BAT MITZVAH—CHANA ESTHER RUBIN

Chana Rubin, daughter of Rabbi Evan and Mrs. Kerry Rubin, will become a Bat Mitzvah on October 18, 2020, at Keneset Israel Torah Center. Chana is a student at Shalom School, Sacramento's Jewish Day School.

In addition to her parents and loving sisters, Rochael and Penina, Chana is greatly looking forward to sharing her simcha with family and friends from near and far. Her grandmothers, Mrs. Barbara Rubin of Sacramento, and Mrs. Rollie Solomon of Marietta, Georgia, as well as aunts, uncles, and cousins will be joining Chana for this wonderful occasion.

We wish Chana the very best as she ascends "Machayil El Chayil" - from strength to strength. May she always be a blessing to her family and the people of Israel.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

Our Sisterhood is working hard to plan events that we can all participate in during this difficult time. The next get-together will be Apple Picking on Tuesday, October 6 at 10:30 a.m. at MacQueen Orchards. This activity will be a fun activity for everyone while allowing for social distancing. A bushel of apples is $20.00 or 1/2 bushel is $10.00. For those who would prefer fewer apples, four people are permitted to split 1/2 bushel. MacQueen Orchards is located at 7605 Garden Road, Holland, Ohio. Please RSVP for this fun event by contacting either Andrea Lublin at 419-450-3754 or Cheryl Berkowitz at 419-297-0823.

The next Sisterhood meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, October 13 at 10:00 a.m. via Zoom. All Sisterhood members are invited to attend. Please let Elsa Leveton know (419-473-2401) if you would like to participate. She will send you the Zoom link.

Have a safe and happy New Year.

Sisterhood Recipe of the Month

Mushroom-Almond/Walnut Pate

From Dick Schectman via Margie Siegel

- 12 oz. mushrooms, sliced
- 1 medium onion, chopped
- 1 clove garlic, minced
- 2 T olive oil
- 3/4 tsp salt
- 1/2 tsp thyme
- 1/8 tsp finely ground pepper
- 3/4 cup ground almonds or ground walnuts or a mixture of both.

Grind almonds and/or walnuts in a food processor with a chopping blade in place or in a blender. Saute all ingredients, except the nuts, in a shallow pan until onions are soft and lightly browned. Transfer the sautéed ingredients to the food processor or to the blender that has the ground nuts in it. Run the processor or blender until the pate is smooth. Makes a delicious hors d'oeuvres or munchie when served with crackers or raw vegetables.
