JOIN US FOR A MONTH OF WONDERFUL PROGRAMS

Hello Etz Chayim family & friends. Although the past year has been tough, it delights me to see how we have stayed connected through our Zoom programs and activities. It is so important for all of us to come together even through our computers. Not only can we see our Toledo friends, but during the past months Rabbi Garsek and Rabbi Bienenfeld joined us to lead learning sessions. We are lucky to have Kerry Rubin from California and Linda Franklin from Oregon join us for Sunday mahj and Marcy Steingroot from Baltimore joins us for programs. These connections are positive and so important!!

Let me begin by announcing that Naomi Baron and Andrea Delman will be leading another Book/Art Discussion on Sunday, May 23, although the time is still to be determined. The book that they will be sharing & discussing is The Lady in Gold by Anne-Marie O'Connor. (Participants can instead watch the movie, "Woman in Gold", which is available from the Toledo Public Library.) This is a history of Gustav Klimt's portrait of Adele Bloch-Bauer and it's 60-year journey from pre-World War II Vienna to the United States. Please be sure to register for this outstanding program.

I am also delighted that Aviva Panush has agreed to teach a 3-week class. The dates are Wednesday evenings, April 14, 21, & 28 at 7:00 p.m. Aviva takes the time to read, interpret and explain text to her group participants. Her sessions are always fun and interesting. Be sure to register for these classes.

We are honored to have Rabbi Goldstein come back to us to lead another learning session on Wednesday, April 7 at 7:00 p.m. His topic will be Sefirat Ha'omer (Counting of the Omer).

Come play Sunday mahj each week. It is a lovely time for the ladies to get together by Zoom, play mahj and chat. Changing teams each week gives everyone a chance to play & talk with someone different each time. If you are interested in joining the fun, please contact Nancy at Jaco824@bex.net.

I would like to wish everyone a happy and kosher Pesach!

Nancy Jacobson, Program Director

FROM THE PRESIDENT

I wish everyone a very happy Passover. Gathering with other family members has been a blessing and has long been awaited. We all hope for more opportunities to gather together soon.

Due to the fact that many of our members have now received two doses of the Covid vaccine, the Shul will again commence Mincha services beginning Tuesday, April 6, at 6:00 p.m. Mincha services will be held every Sunday, Tuesday and Thursday at the synagogue at 6:00 p.m., either inside or in the parking lot, depending on the weather. Masks will be required, particularly if services are held inside. Please be respectful of all who attend by wearing your mask properly and for the entire service as some of our members have not yet received the full dose of the vaccine.

The Religious Committee is investigating the possibility of returning for Saturday Shabbat services as well as Shavout services. This is a slow process but one in which the Board of Trustees is working hard to ensure the safest environment for all.

*Steve Marcus,
President*

SISTERHOOD NEWS

The Sisterhood board met Tuesday, March 9 via Zoom. Eleven women were in attendance.

The Zoom Passover cooking class on Tuesday, March 2 was a great hit with some new recipes to try and great cooking tips given by Chef Carol Pock.

Sheila Painter, a local storyteller will present a program on zoom on Tuesday, April 20th at 10:00 a.m. Her topic is "Influential Women of Local History". This should be an informative and enjoyable program.

With the Covid vaccine becoming available to more and more people, everyone is looking forward to getting back to some sort of "normal". With this in mind, we are planning a joint Etz Chayim/ Sisterhood special dairy luncheon on Sunday, May 16 in celebration of Shavuot, which falls this year Sunday evening, May 16 through Tuesday, May 18. Because of the uncertainty of where the country will be with regards to Covid, details are still in the planning stages. Guidelines from Ohio and Lucas County health departments will be strictly followed. Be sure to watch for further information and details as we get closer to the date.

The next board meeting is Tuesday, April 6 via Zoom at 10:00 a.m. If you are interested in joining, please let Elsa know at elsa@etzchayimtoledo.org or 419-473-2401.

Have a wonderful Passover.

THIS STORY MUST NEVER DIE.

A PROMISE TO OUR FATHERS

A Promise To Our Fathers fulfills a promise two young sons made to their fathers, one a Holocaust survivor and the other, a liberator of what each endured and witnessed.

In 1958, two nine-year-old boys met as neighbors and became best friends. Their fathers had each experienced the hell of war—one as a victim of the Nazis, the other as a soldier and liberator. The boys made a promise to their fathers to share their families' remarkable experiences and ensure the world never forgets the horrors of the Holocaust.

A Promise to Our Fathers is a documentary film that recounts this special story of Holocaust survivors who lost everything but each other and an Army/Air-Corps medic who treated survivors in the Dachau concentration camp. It's a moving tribute to the power of survival, to friendship and to a commitment to make a difference in the fight against anti-Semitism.

On Festivals occurring Friday conclude:
 Shabbos ve'yom tov.

Blessed art Thou, O Lord, our G-d, King of the universe, who hast sanctified us by Thy commandments and instructed us to kindle the Sabbath (and/or) Festival Lights.
