FROM THE PRESIDENT

As we approach gathering with family and friends for the High Holidays, we are given the opportunity to reflect on the past year of 5781. We will forever remember how much we missed the person-to-person connections with others and then the joy of finally having occasions to see each other face-to-face.

The well-being of all is still of utmost importance to the Shul Board. Therefore, protocols will continue to be in effect during our High Holiday services. We are grateful to both our longtime friend Joseph Gold and Rabbinical student Jason Mark for agreeing to lead us all in prayer during the High Holidays.

In the new year of 5782, the Shul will continue to provide wonderful activities and programs for all to attend and enjoy. We look forward to celebrating the New Year with our Etz Chayim "family" and know that Jews around the world will be joining us in prayer.

On behalf of the Board, the Officers and our Etz Chayim staff, I wish each and every one of you a healthy, safe and meaningful 5782. L'Shana Tova!

Steve Marcus
President

IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING THE HIGH HOLIDAYS

We are excited to hold Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur services in person this year in our beautiful sanctuary. In light of the current situation relating to the Covid-19 Delta Variant, we are limiting attendance to vaccinated members and their guests ONLY. Proof of vaccination will be required to attend services. Please provide a photocopy of your vaccination card to the synagogue office (prior to the holidays) by mail, email (elsa@etzchayimtoledo.org), or bring your vaccination card to the office and the staff will make a copy. It would also be beneficial to contact the shul office to confirm your attendance for security purposes. We will continue to encourage social distancing within the sanctuary. Although wearing a mask is not mandatory at this time, anyone who prefers to wear a mask may certainly do so, but, as circumstances change, masks may become mandatory.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

Congregation Etz Chayim Sisterhood wishes everyone Shana Tova, a year filled with good health, happiness and peace.

Sisterhood is happy to announce that the next Sisterhood event will be a joint Sukkot/Opening Sisterhood Luncheon. The Luncheon will be held on Sunday, September 26 at 12:30 p.m. at Etz Chayim. A special speaker is planned for the event and will be announced at a later date. (Please note that this is a change from the date announced in the August Hashomer.) All Etz Chayim members are invited to attend. Please call the synagogue office at 419-473-2401 or email Elsa at Elsa@etzchayimtoledo.org by Monday, September 20 to make reservations.

Sisterhood cookbooks are still available. The Cookbooks are in a nice binder with many of the favorite recipes used over the years at Etz Chayim. They make wonderful gifts for the new or experienced cooks in your family. The Cookbooks are only $5.00 each.

Our next Sisterhood meeting will be Tuesday, September 14 at 10:00 a.m. via Zoom. All Sisterhood members are invited to attend. If you are interested in attending, please let Elsa know (419-473-2401 or Elsa@etzchayimtoledo.org) so that she can send the link to you.

SEPTEMBER PROGRAMS PLANNED

Wishing Everyone A Sweet New Year..... A New Year begins and the programs continue at Etz Chayim. We will continue to enjoy speakers & learning sessions, poker & mahj, movies, book discussions & art tours, holiday celebrations and more.

Our Etz Chayim family and friends were together for the tailgate party and Mud Hens baseball on August 1st. Everyone enjoyed the delicious grilled hot dogs, baked beans, brownies, drinks and great social get-together. I would like to give a huge thank you to Elsa, Mel, Danny, David, Steve, Phyllis and Marcia. Your time cooking and organizing helped to make the afternoon a HUGE success!! Our group cheered on the Mud Hens to a win for first place in their division.

Rabbinical student Jason Mark led a lovely Shabbat service on August 8th. We are looking forward to having Jason lead holiday services and our Etz Chayim family and friends being together.

We are fortunate to have Aviva Panush come back for another learning session on Zoom Sunday, September 12 at 10:30 a.m. Her sessions are inspiring and informative. Aviva's sessions are open for the participants to respond & ask questions. Please register and plan to join.

We will only have one in-person Sunday mahj and poker during the month of September. This will be on Sunday, September 19 from 10:00 a.m.– noon.

We are so excited that Naomi Baron and Andrea Delman will be doing their next Book Discussion & “Art Tour” on Sunday, October 3 at 10:30 a.m. The book being discussed is Provenance: How a Con Man and a Forger Rewrote the History of Modern Art by Laney Salisbury. This discussion will be IN PERSON AT THE SHUL. Please see below to register.

I would also like to take the opportunity to thank Marc Jacobson for organizing the challahs for birthdays and anniversaries. What a beautiful way to keep our Etz Chayim family connected! Many thanks to his team who help each month to call and deliver the challahs. Without you, this could not be possible. Todah Rabah to Margie, Aileen, Phyllis, Cindy, Dan & Steve. If anyone would be interested in volunteering to deliver challahs, please contact Marc at mdja-co@gmail.com.

PLEASE NOTE: All programs require registration. Please contact either Nancy Jacobson at Jaco824@bex.net or Elsa Leveton at 419-473-2401 or elsa@etzchayimtoledo.org for further information and registration. Please note that all attendees at in-person activities must be fully vaccinated. Although wearing a mask is not mandatory at this time, anyone who prefers to wear a mask may certainly do so, but, as circumstances change, masks may become mandatory. Participants will be notified of any changes.

L'Shana Tova,

*Nancy Jacobson
Programming Director*
