FROM THE PRESIDENT

The leaves are falling and we are looking forward to lighting the first candle of Chanukah on Sunday night, November 28. Remember to mark your calendar and join your fellow congregants on Saturday, November 20 for Shabbat services, followed by the Installation of our Officers and Board of Trustees. Recipients of the Harry Levine Service Award will also be recognized at the luncheon immediately following Shabbat services.

More opportunities to join together in person are being scheduled. We are also attempting to provide additional clergy for the synagogue as we move into the winter months. Elsa Leveton and Sandy Marcus, our wonderful office staff, are available to answer any questions you may have.

Also, Nancy Jacobson has arranged great programs, so continue to read her article in the Hashomer and mark your calendars accordingly.

On behalf of the Board and myself, everyone please enjoy Thanksgiving and have a joyful and happy Chanukah.

*Steve Marcus
President*

SISTERHOOD NEWS

Sisterhood has a wonderful Fall activity planned for November. Recipe Sharing is such a popular activity that we will be having an in-person event this year focusing on recipes using cranberries and other Fall vegetables. YASHER KOACH TO OUR GABBOYIM

The Coronavirus Pandemic has required much of us, at work, at home, in the community. At Congregation Etz Chayim, during the recent high holidays, there were two volunteers who were required, by definition of their positions, to do more than ever before. These two men are our dedicated gabbyyim, David Black and Charles Wittenberg. For every minute of our services, they, and they alone, assisted our clergy in making sure that all was done according to Halacha. Usually there are men from the congregation who participate on the bima during the service, helping to raise and dress the Torah, opening and closing the ark, being there as part of the service. And although our congregants were called to the front of the sanctuary for aliyot, all of the heavy lifting, both physically and spiritually, was handled by David and Charles.

Charles has held the position of Gabbi for many, many years; David is relatively new to the position. Both, as usual, with no fanfare, simply did what was required, and did it with the care and dedication and knowledge that we have come to expect from them. They honor us with their service and we honor them for their service. It will be our pleasure at our coming Installation Luncheon to ask them to rise that we may express our appreciation.

Yasher koach, Charles and David. May you go m'chayl el'chayl, from strength to strength!

THE HARRY LEVINE SERVICE AWARD

Above and Beyond Over the Top . . . Just Like Harry

Above and Beyond . . . Over the Top . . . Harry Levine, of Blessed Memory, was a leader among leaders of our shul. He gave of his time, his resources, and was the backbone of our daily minyanim. A role model to be emulated, Harry carried with him warmth, wit, commitment to Jewish continuity, and humility which was matched only by his generosity.

Steve Marcus and Melvin Siegel, yes they are - both of them - above and beyond and over the top - in their dedication, loyalty, and contribution to Congregation Etz Chayim. Chosen unanimously by the Morris Lubitsky Memorial Committee, they are the recipients of this year's Harry Levine Service Award.

Among other things, Steve has been the president of Congregation Etz Chayim multiple times, each time for multiple years, as well as longtime chair of the Trust Oversight Committee. Among other things, Melvin has been longtime chair of the House Committee, taking care of the inside and outside of our building, as well as handling the responsibilities of High Holiday Aliyot. Both men have held multiple positions of leadership on the Etz Chayim Executive Board, in Netay Etz Chayim, and in the Men's Club. Both have been active minyanaires. Neither has said no when called upon. But even more than saying yes, both have always, consistently, done more than the minimum, always reached for the maximum, always asking what needed to be accomplished and then setting up a plan to get there. Both have been awarded the Morris Lubitsky Memorial Award. Both walk with confidence at our shul and both walk with humility. They exemplify beautifully the admonishment by Micah: Love mercy, do justly, walk humbly with thy G-d.

Steve Marcus was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, and raised in Mansfield where both his mother and father were leaders in the Jewish community. He attended Miami University where he met his wife, Sandy, and graduated with a Bachelor of Arts Degree. Sandy and Steve moved to Toledo in 1975 when Steve began his education at the University of Toledo College of Law.

Like many in the community, Steve's initial connection with Congregation Etz Chayim was through Rabbi Garsek who was the mohel at the birth of his first son, Joshua. In 1983, just prior to welcoming Adam to their family, Steve and Sandy joined Congregation Etz Chayim.

Steve is a partner in the law firm of Fell & Marcus Co., LPA, representing injured workers in the State of Ohio relating to workers' compensation. He and Sandy have been married for 46 years and are proud parents and grandparents to both Joshua (Leah) and Adam as well as their fabulous grandchildren, Hanna, Sam, and Jaxon.

Mel Siegel was born and raised in New York in a traditional home. Along with his two sisters, he was given the basis of family and Judaism by his parents. Mel has fond memories of attending synagogue with his father regularly and feels his involvement in our shul is quite a natural outgrowth. He takes great pride in the fact that Margie's family have been active members of B'nai Jacob and Etz Chayim for generations.

Mel came to Toledo in 1962 to attend the University of Toledo. He and Margie married after their graduations and recently celebrated their 53rd anniversary. Subsequent to graduation, Mel served in the Armed Forces, followed by a career working for the Social Security Administration.

Melvin is currently retired. Not only do he and Margie cherish their shul family, but they cherish their own family and the times they are able to spend with their children, Danny (Jeanene) and Michael (Jenny) and precious grandchildren, Anna, Owen, Nathaniel, and Caleb, as well as time with siblings and cousins.

Both Steve and Melvin are grateful and honored to be associated with our Etz Chayim family and appreciate and thank the Committee for selecting them for the Harry Levine Service Award.

Mazel tov, Steve and Mel! Wishing you continued strength!

NOVEMBER PROGRAMS PLANNED

Hello Etz Chayim family & friends. Since the New Year, we have joined together for beautiful & meaningful Shabbat services, interesting & interacting discussions, fun mahj & poker games, and a lovely nature walk and picnic at Toledo Botanical Gardens. Naomi Baron & Andrea Delman had another book discussion & art tour for all of us to enjoy.

During November, everyone is invited to join together for a community Book Fair event, poker or mahj, Shabbat services, and a very special Zoom tour of the Anu Museum of the Jewish People in Tel Aviv.

Remember to contact me with any ideas for programs. These programs can be in person or on Zoom.

The month begins with in person mahj & poker on Sunday, November 7. Come play, laugh and enjoy time with your friends from 10:00-12:00. We will play mahj online on November 14 & 21 from 1:00-2:30 p.m.

A very special Zoom program at the Anu-Museum of the Jewish People is planned for Sunday, November 14 at 10:00 a.m. Explore highlights of the spectacular new museum to learn about the unique and ongoing story of the Jewish People. We will make stops on each of 3 expansive floors of the new building, where the diversity of the Jewish world is revealed through extraordinary artifacts, state-of-the-art displays, immersive video and world-class art. Topics include: modern Jewish identity and culture, the historical journey of the Jewish people from Biblical times to the present, and the foundations of Jewish life.

This will be an innovative online live session tour. A museum educator will be with our group from the comfort of our computer(s). The tour will be interactive and will allow the participants to ask questions and share ideas with the group throughout the session. We can meet in the library at the shul to watch or you may watch from the comfort of your own home. Those registered and paid will be sent the link. Please register by November 8. The fee is $5.00 per person.

Have a safe and wonderful Thanksgiving with family and friends!

Chanukah Candle-Lighting

The first two blessings are said with the Shamash already lit, but immediately prior to lighting the Chanukah candles.

BLESSING #1

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה ד' אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם	Baruch ata Adonoy Eloheinu melech ha-olam
אֲשֶׁר קִדְּשָׁנוּ בְּמִצְוֹתָיו	asher kid'shanu be'mitzvo'sav
וְצִוָּנוּ לְהַדְלִיק נֵר שֶׁל חֲנֻכָּה.	ve-tzivanu lehadlik ner shel Chanukah.

Blessed are You, God, King of the Universe, Who made us holy with His commandments and commanded us to kindle the Chanukah light.

BLESSING #2

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה ד' אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם	Baruch ata Adonoy Eloheinu melech ha-olam
שֶׁעָשָׂה נִסִּים לְאַבוֹתֵינוּ	Shi-asa nee-seem la-avo-seinu,
בְּיָמֵים הָהֵם בְּזִמְנֵי הַזֶּה.	Bayameem ha-haim baz-man ha-zeh.

Blessed are You, God, King of the Universe, Who made miracles for our forefathers, in those days at this season.

BLESSING #3

This blessing is said on the first night only.

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה ד' אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם	Baruch ata Adonoy Eloheinu melech ha-olam
שֶׁהַחַיָּנוּ וְקִיָּמָנוּ	Sheh-he-che-yanu vi-kee-yimanu
וְהַגִּיעָנוּ לְזִמְנֵי הַזֶּה.	Vi-hee-gee-yanu laz-man ha-zeh.

Blessed are You, God, King of the Universe, Who has kept us alive, sustained us, and brought us to this season.

This paragraph is said each night, after the first light has been kindled.

הַנְּרוֹת הַלְלוּ אֶנְחֵנוּ מִדְּלִיקָתָם עַל הַנִּסִּים וְעַל הַנִּפְלְאוֹת וְעַל הַתְּשׁוּעוֹת וְעַל
הַמִּלְחָמוֹת שֶׁעָשִׂיתָ לְאַבוֹתֵינוּ בְּיָמֵים הָהֵם בְּזִמְנֵי הַזֶּה עַל יְדֵי כֹהֲנֵיךְ הַקְּדוֹשִׁים.
וְכָל שְׂמוֹנֵת יָמֵי חֲנֻכָּה הַנְּרוֹת הַלְלוּ קִדְּשׁ הֵם וְאִין לָנוּ רְשׁוֹת לְהַשְׁתַּמֵּשׁ בָּהֶם אֶלָּא
לְרִאוֹתָם בְּלִבָּד כְּדִי לְהוֹדוֹת וּלְהַלֵּל לְשִׁמְךָ הַגָּדוֹל עַל נִסִּיךָ וְעַל נִפְלְאוֹתֶיךָ וְעַל יְשׁוּעָתֶךָ.

We kindle these lights for the miracles and the wonders, for the redemption and the battles which You performed for our forefathers in those days at this season through Your holy priests. During all eight days of Chanukah these lights are sacred, and we are not permitted to make ordinary use of them, but only to look at them – in order to express thanks and praise to Your great Name, for your miracles, Your wonders, and Your salvations.

Monkey Business, The Adventures of Curious George's Creators

Featuring a narrow escape from the Nazis on makeshift bicycles, the documentary, Monkey Business, explores the extraordinary lives of Hans and Margret Rey, the authors of the beloved Curious George children's series that has sold over 75 million books in more than 25 languages, making Curious George the most popular monkey in the world. Originally from Hamburg, Germany, the Reys resided in Paris where they accidentally became children's book authors when a publisher suggested they create a book out of a cartoon Hans had drawn. Being German Jews, however, their life in Paris abruptly came to an end in June 1940 when the Reys were forced to escape from the Nazis by riding makeshift bicycles—a manuscript of the first Curious George book was one of the few possessions they could smuggle out with them. Arriving in New York as refugees, they started their life anew and over the next three decades they created a classic that continues to touch the hearts and minds of children around the world.
