FROM THE PRESIDENT

I reviewed my article from last January and I noted that with the vaccines on their way there was hope by early summer we would be able to return to some semblance of normalcy.

We have returned for Shabbat services approximately once per month, as well as having joined together for the High Holidays, which was wonderful. We have continued to put on great programming with opportunities to see each other on Zoom as well as in person.

As we enter January 2022, we, unfortunately, must still deal with COVID and its impact on our Shul and the community. We have been lucky to have Jason Mark as our rabbinic intern as well as our wonderful Shul staff to keep the doors open and activities planned.

The winter months are upon us, but that will not diminish our efforts to bring us together for both services and programs. Be sure to join us for January's Fireside Chat with Jason Mark, Sisterhood's Tu B'Shevat seder, and our annual Family Shabbat Dinner. And don't forget Poker and Mahj. We will also have morning minyan on January 16, services before the Family Shabbat Dinner on January 28, and Shabbat services on January 29. See the Program page in this bulletin for further information. I look forward to seeing you at these wonderful activities.

On behalf of the Board, please take care and stay safe.

Steve Marcus, President

SISTERHOOD NEWS

The Chanukah luncheon in December was well attended and enjoyable. The egg salad and tuna salad were delicious and the latkes were the best! Thank you to the ladies who worked so hard to make this lunch the success it was!

Our next activity will be the Tu B'Shevat seder on Sunday, January 16 at 9:00 a.m. which will be led by our rabbinic intern, Jason Mark. Please plan to attend and take part in this interactive discussion & seder featuring traditional wines and fruit.

The next Sisterhood meeting will be Tuesday, January 4, 2022 at 10:00 a.m. via Zoom. Please let Elsa know if you would like to join us.

The synagogue and gift shop are open Mondays 9:00 a.m. to noon, Wednesdays, 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. and by appointment.

TU B'SHEVAT

Tu B'Shevat gets its name from the date on which the holiday occurs, the 15th of the month of Shevat. A minor Jewish holiday, it is often referred to as the new year (or "birthday") of the trees. The holiday originated in the Talmud, and was based on the date chosen for calculating the agricultural cycle of taking tithes from the produce of the trees, which were brought as first-fruit offerings to the Temple in Jerusalem.

The holiday of Tu B'Shevat fell out of practice after the destruction of the Second Temple, but was revived by kabbalists in the Middle Ages. They instituted the practice of a Tu B'Shevat seder, a meal that partly mirrors the Passover seder and involves eating biblical foods native to the Holy Land and drinking four cups of wine.

Tu B'Shevat has developed into an ecological holiday that reminds Jews of our connection to the earth and to our role as caretakers of the environment. Some modern practices include donating money to plant trees in Israel or planting trees locally.

Join us for a Tu B'Shevat seder featuring traditional wines and fruit, led by Jason Mark on Sunday, January 16 at 10:00 a.m., following morning minyan and a light breakfast.
