FROM THE PRESIDENT

Please come and join your fellow congregants for Shabbat services to be led by our rabbinic intern Jason Mark on Saturday, May 7. A luncheon will follow honoring Jason for his wonderful service to Etz Chayim these past months and to wish him and Ariel the best of luck in their new positions in Morgantown, West Virginia.

The Board and its committees are also focusing on our clergy needs for the High Holidays which begin in late September. Further, the Board is continuing to investigate all options to further fulfill our Shul's clergy needs into the future. At the same time, we will continue to hold Mincha services on Tuesdays at 6:00 p.m. at the Shul.

As the Board continues to look to the future of Etz Chayim, it is imperative that each member of our Shul has the opportunity to express his or her wants and needs for the Shul's future. In this way the Board can make decisions reflecting the desires of our congregants. With this in mind, please do not hesitate to contact me either through the Shul office or at home and I will be happy to talk with you.

Steve Marcus, President

The book being presented is:

Mah-Jongg Sets & How the Game Was Played in the 1920's
by Jeffrey J. Gordon

Jeff Gordon will be attending the luncheon to speak about his book and to sign copies.

"Mah-Jongg Sets and How the Game was Played in the 1920s" by Jeffrey J. Gordon is a comprehensive and beautifully illustrated guide to the earliest Mah-Jongg sets in the U.S. First, it encompasses the geography, history, Jewish contribution, exceptional importance of Mah-Jongg in 1920s popular culture, and descriptions of Mah-Jongg set components and their functions in actual play. Then, it provides detailed and illustrated coverage of the many varieties of 1920s Mah-Jongg sets in terms of their boxes, tiles, dice, wind discs, counters, instruction booklets, racks and tables. This welcome book fills a gap and is sure to be appreciated by countless Mah-Jongg players and collectors.

The book is available through Amazon.com and other on-line booksellers.

Please R.S.V.P. to Elsa Leveton at 419-473-2401, or email: elsa@etzchayimtoledo.org by July 13, 2022.

SHAVUOT

It is ironic that Shavuot is such a little-known holiday, given that it commemorates the single most important event in Jewish history – the giving of the Torah at Mount Sinai.

Shavuot occurs on the 6th of Sivan, the culmination of a seven-week period, "counting of the Omer," that occurs following Passover. The very name "Shavuot" means "weeks," in recognition of the weeks of preparation and anticipation leading up to the Sinai experience. Since Shavuot occurs 50 days after the first day of Passover, it is sometimes known as "Pentecost," a Greek word meaning "the holiday of 50 days." (Shavuot, however, has no connection to the Christian Pentecost holiday.)

Three millennia ago, after leaving Egypt on the day of Passover, the Jews traveled into the Sinai desert. There, the entire Jewish nation – 3 million men, women and children – directly experienced divine revelation:

G-d spoke to you from the midst of the fire; you were hearing the sound of words, but you were not seeing a form, only a sound. He told you of His covenant, instructing you to keep the Ten Commandments, and He inscribed them on two stone tablets. (Deut. 4:12-13)

The giving of the Torah was an event of awesome proportions that indelibly stamped the Jewish nation with a unique character, faith and destiny. And in the 3,300 years since, the Torah's ideals – monotheism, justice, responsibility – have become the moral basis for Western civilization. In the words of U.S. President Calvin Coolidge, "The Hebraic mortars cemented the foundations of American democracy."
