FROM THE PRESIDENT

As the fall season approaches, so does the coming of the Holiday season. We welcome in the New Year, and begin by reflecting back on the year 5783 and looking forward to the New Year of 5784. As a shul, we have been through many changes. And, in the coming year, we will continue to see more.

It is important for you to know that we have a group of dedicated and talented members who are working hard to keep the spirit of Congregation Etz Chayim intact. Over the last year or so, a new committee formed to carve out the future of our shul. In addition, there are a number of others throughout the community who share in our concerns and offer their ideas and their help to shape our future. While our numbers may be shrinking, we are working together as a shul to grow!

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, we extend our wishes for you all to have a sweet, joyous, happy and healthy New Year!

Looking forward to seeing you all in shul.

L'Shana Tova!

Marc Jacobson
President

SEPTEMBER PROGRAMS PLANNED

Wishing Everyone A Sweet New Year... A New Year begins and the programs continue at Etz Chayim. We have so much for you to look forward to during the next year, 5784. Programs and events will continue to be planned to offer education and socialization for all.

During August, twenty Etz Chayim family members joined together for our first Theatre Trip. Rene Rusgo organized all the details and Margie Siegel, Elsa Leveton, and I helped with the planning. It was a bus trip to the Purple Rose Theatre in Chelsea, Michigan to see "A Jukebox for the Algonquin." The show is about a small group of senior residents who wanted to prove that aging is not a New York state of mind. While we traveled, we discussed "How Judaism deals with aging". The discussion was very good and interesting. Thanks to Margie for her time researching and finding various sources to share on this topic. We stopped for lunch at in Ann Arbor, and enjoyed delicious food together. Then we were off to the play. It was wonderful! When we returned, the men held minyan. It was a perfect day with our synagogue family!!

We also held our annual tailgate picnic and trip to the Mud Hens game on August 13. It was so nice having our Etz Chayim family & friends get together for these programs. There were 17 of us cheering on the Mud Hens to an exciting win. Many thanks to Mel, Danny, Bobby, & Steve for their help with the picnic. Your help is so appreciated!

I would also like to give a huge thank you to Rachel Osnowitz and Marc Jacobson for volunteering their time on a Sunday morning in July to prepare breakfast at the Ronald McDonald House. The three of us enjoyed working together to make the breakfast for the families. My plans are to volunteer again on December 25 to provide another meal. I hope more people will join us for this worthwhile experience.

We are fortunate to have Rabi Belsky present a pre-Rosh Hashana Zoom learning session on Thursday, September 7 at 7:00 p.m. It will be an hour of interesting, interactive discussion. The topic is "The Consequences of Sin: An Argument with G-d." Please register for this session to receive the Zoom link.

Our in-person Sunday Poker & Mahj is September 10, at 10:00 a.m. to noon. The ladies had two mahj tables during our July & August get-together and had such an enjoyable time. Come join the fun!!

Each month we join together for a special kiddush luncheon to celebrate monthly birthdays and anniversaries following the Shabbat service. A delicious lunch is prepared and served. It is a lovely way for our Etz Chayim family to come together. Watch the calendar and save the date each month.

SAVE THE DATE: On Wednesday, October 4 we will have Minyan & Appetizers in the Sukkah. Join your Etz Chayim family in the Sukkah for appetizers and to shake the lulav & etrog. Minyan will begin at 6:00 p.m.

I wish you all a very happy & healthy New Year.
